FIUME AS FREE STATE UNDER PROTECTION OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Italian Government Has Agreed to That Proposal, According to a Paris Paper; Not to Be Surrounded by Jugo-Slav Territory

Paris, Oct. 14.—Italy has agreed to the creation of a free state in Fiume, the port to remain under control of the League of Nations, says The Petit Parisien. At the same time, it is said, Italy is understood to require there shall be no gap between the free state and Italian Istria, in order that Fiume may not be surrounded by Jugo-Slav territory.

Paris, Oct. 14.—The Duke of Aosta, eldest cousin of King Victor Emmanuel, arrived in Paris yesterday, bound for Belgium, where, it is said, he will reside. Newspapers here say the Duke, who commanded the Italian Third Army during the war, incurred the displeasure of his royal cousin owing to his attitude toward Captain Gabriele d'Annunzio's raid on Fiume.

GRAND TRUNK PLAN MEETS OPPOSITION

Montreal Board of Trade Members Against Scheme Put Forward

Montreal, Oct. 14.—Opposition has developed in the Montreal Board of Trade to the proposed plan of the Government for acquisition of the Grand Trunk Railway, as announced in recent dispatches from Ottawa. The president, John Baillie, has received many letters and telegrams stating that official action be taken by the Board of Trade to emphasize its opposition to the plan. Following these requests, President Baillie yesterday sent out notices to all the members of the Board of Trade, calling a special general meeting for Thursday next. It is stated that Montreal Board of Trade has been consistently against nationalization of the railways and therefore is opposed to the plan for acquisition of the Grand Trunk by the Government, although the Council was on record as desirous that the Government should treat the Grand Trunk with every possible consideration.

BUSINESS MEN'S DUTY IS TO LEAD

Natural Resources Must Be Developed, Says Mayor of Medicine Hat

Vancouver, Oct. 14.—"The time has come when the business men of this country must lead in the development of natural resources. In the past we have been too dependent upon the Government, but from now on it will be a business man's proposition."

So said M. A. Brown, Mayor of Medicine Hat, and president of the Alberta Industrial Development Association, in an interview here last night. He and others comprise a committee to confer with local business men on industrial development. Mr. Brown will speak to members of the Board of Trade this afternoon on the subject of co-operation between British Columbia and Alberta in the matter of development. With him are John Sweeting, industrial agent of the C. P. R., Winnipeg; George W. Craig, City Engineer of Calgary, and J. E. Brown, Edmonton.

"Our object here," said Mr. Brown, "is simply to interest British Columbia business men to form an association here which will co-operate with us in the securing of capital and manufacturing to develop the resources which are already at our doors."

WILL BUY ORCHARDS.

BOMB-MAKER IS CAUGHT IN STATES

Man Who Aided in Terrorist Plot Arrested in Indiana

Authorities Clearing Up Plots of May Day and June 2

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Federal authorities at Gary, Ind., where military control was established by Major-General Leonard Wood after the situation growing out of the strike of steel workers had become too threatening for the state authorities to handle, have arrested the alleged maker of the bomb exploded on the night of June last in the doorway of the house in Washington of A. Mitchell Palmer, United States Attorney-General, and have obtained evidence clearing up the bomb plots of May Day and June 2, according to authoritative information obtained here.

Evidence also has been obtained, it is said, that revealed the entire terrorist organization responsible for the attempts against the lives of law enforcement officials throughout the country, and that the organization was active in the arrest and prosecution of radicals. The man held in connection with the Palmer bomb is believed to have been the manufacturer of the thirty-three bombs sent through the mails in boxes wrapped in paper from the Gimbel Brothers Store in New York and timed to reach their intended victims on May 1.

Many Arrests. Since the 1,000 soldiers of the 4th and 6th Divisions took control of Gary the investigations have been surrounded with mystery. There have been many arrests made and a strong stockade was built to keep the prisoners in. How many men beside the alleged bomb-makers are held in connection with the nationwide plots has not been made known by the authorities.

SERBIA AT LAST FREE OF SMALLPOX

London, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Belgrade says that for the first time in five years, Serbia is free of smallpox. Only three cases are reported in the whole kingdom. The announcement has been made by the medical staff of the American Red Cross headquarters in Belgrade, which a week ago made the even more gratifying announcement that Serbia is once more free of typhus, after a struggle of five years.

COAST-TO-COAST PLANE WRECKED AT POINT IN NEBRASKA

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 14.—The Martin bombing plane, entry No. 108 in the coast-to-coast race, piloted by Captain Roy N. Francis, was completely wrecked and the pilot and his three passengers severely shaken up when the plane crashed to the ground in an alfalfa field a mile south of Yutan, thirty miles west of Omaha, shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. The plane was forced to land during a dense fog and became entangled in telephone wires which caused Captain Francis to lose control of the craft. The four men returned to Omaha on board a train.

AVIATOR STARTS FLIGHT TO AUSTRALIA FROM FRANCE

Issy-les-Moulineaux, France, Oct. 14.—Aviator Poulet started at 7.14 o'clock this morning on his flight to Australia. He was sighted over Troyes at 9 o'clock. ## INCENDIARY SHEETS SCATTERED ABOUT IN GARY, INDIANA

Gary, Ind., Oct. 14.—Pamphlets announcing a plan to wrest control of this city from the Federal troops were scattered throughout the downtown district yesterday afternoon. The bulletins called on the workers to rise against the military.

B.C.E.R. NOT NOW UNDER PROVINCIAL COMMISSION

Amendments to the Dominion Railway Act passed by the Federal Parliament just prior to its adjournment in July last place the British Columbia Electric Railway Company completely outside the jurisdiction of the Province of British Columbia, and just as completely within the jurisdiction of the Federal Parliament. In effect the amendments in question remove the case of the street railway company from the jurisdiction of the British Columbia Public Utilities Commission, and transfer it to the Federal Parliament. Under the provincial statute the fund is held in trust, the Act providing that the money so accumulated be turned over to the Vancouver General Hospital in the event of the Public Utilities Commission ruling that the company is not entitled to it. Its disposal in view of the unexpected developments is now a matter for interesting speculation.

How It Operates. In making the above announcement this morning Attorney-General Farris explained that under the Dominion Railway Act, as amended, certain Provincial Railroads are declared to be for the general advantage of Canada which, under the provisions of the British North America Act, places such roads under the jurisdiction of the Federal Parliament, entirely divesting the Province of any jurisdiction.

Two classes of road are specified (a) Roads operated by a company incorporated outside of Canada; (b) Provincial roads operated by a company, which company also operates roads under the jurisdiction of the Federal Parliament. The effect is, Mr. Farris points out, either of these classifications is broad enough to cover the case of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company. It operates in the first case because the B. C. E. R. Co. is a company incorporated in England, and in the second place because the company operates its Lulu Island branch under lease from the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, a road under the jurisdiction of the Federal Parliament.

Wired Minister of Justice. In view of the amended Federal legislation the whole question of its effect upon the Public Utilities Commission and its special relation to the British Columbia Railway Commission has attracted the attention of Mr. Farris since his return from the Industrial Conference at Ottawa. With all doubt on the point removed he has wired to the Minister of Justice pointing out the whole of the circumstances and the situation in which it places this Province. Mr. Farris also has asked the British Columbia Federal members now in Ottawa to interest themselves in the matter. The Attorney-General likewise has discussed the matter with Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, who is now in this city.

General Condition of President Wilson Is Declared Good

Washington, Oct. 14.—President Wilson's condition was generally good to-day, although he did not have a restful night, according to a bulletin issued by his physicians, the text of which follows:

"The President did not have a restful night last night. His restlessness was caused by a swelling of the prostate gland, a condition from which he has suffered in the past, and which has been intensified more or less by lying in bed. His general condition, however, is good. As noted yesterday, his temperature, pulse, respiration, heart action and blood pressure are normal."

(Signed) "GRAYSON, 'STUTT'."

Rear-Admiral Grayson said the swelling of the prostate gland was quite common, and no importance should be attached to it. It is expected that Dr. Grayson will call in a specialist, however, in order that the President may be made more comfortable.

LONG AIR TRIP WAS GREAT STRAIN

Airmen Not Enthusiastic Over Second Half of Race in States

Mineola, N. Y., Oct. 14.—With twelve of sixty-two original starters safely across the continent and preparing to start the return flight, the first half of the army air service transcontinental race between Mineola and San Francisco entered on its final phase to-day.

By sundown it was expected that the majority of the remaining contestants would have checked in at the two seaboard control stations. Only two of the fifteen original San Francisco starters still in the race remain to check in at Mineola. Five already have arrived and the other eight have been forced out along the routes by accidents. The two remaining fliers are Major J. C. Bartholf, who spent last night Rochester, N. Y., and Lieut. P. J. Richter, who stopped over at Cleveland.

Of the score or more of westbound fliers still in the race, nearly all had reached or passed Chicago and the majority were within a day's flight of San Francisco.

NEW YORK COURT GUARDED BY POLICE

Two Anarchists on Trial; Life of the Judge Was Threatened

Pamphlets Also Threatened Prosecuting Lawyer and Detective-Sergeant

New York, Oct. 14.—Heavy police guards were placed to-day within and about the criminal courts building here, where two alleged anarchists are on trial following the discovery yesterday of highly incendiary circulars threatening the lives of Supreme Court Justice Barlow S. Weeks, Assistant District Attorney Alexander I. Rorke and Detective-Sergeant James G. Gegan, head of the police bomb squad.

Gegan, who had the novel experience last night of being guarded in his home by brother policemen, joined with detectives and agents of the United States Department of Justice to-day in an effort to run down the authors and circulators of the dodgers, which called on all workers to "arm and fight back" against the "capitalists."

Homes Guarded. The homes of Justice Weeks, who is trying the case of two alleged anarchists, newspaper editors and Mr. Rorke, who is directing the prosecution, were closely guarded last night as a result of the declaration of the circulars that they "must" be taken to their high positions, for they will have to pay the price for every worker killed or wounded.

Guards also were placed about public buildings regarded as likely targets for "anarchistic bombs."

Copenhagen, Oct. 14.—Rallied by their officers after panic had seized them when armored cars broke through their lines west of Riga, Lettish forces, reinforced by Estonians, have regained the initiative and have moved across the Duna River, across which they fled last week, according to advices from Wenden.

The offer of an armistice made by Colonel Avaloff-Bermond, commander of the army of the "Russian General Government," has been rejected, it is reported.

Warships Assist. British warships in the harbor of Riga are said to be assisting the Letts in driving the Germano-Russian army back from the city.

Berlin reports that General von der Goltz, commander of German forces in the Baltic provinces, has transferred his authority to General von Eberhardt and is expected in Berlin soon.

It is announced in Berlin that measures have been taken to prevent more German soldiers from going to Courland, the centre of the Germano-Russian movement.

The entire Russian Baltic coast is virtually blockaded.

CONFERENCE SCENE OF MUCH CONFUSION

Method of Settling Industrial Disputes Stirs Washington Gathering

Washington, Oct. 14.—The National Industrial Conference here adjourned in confusion this afternoon after Thomas L. Chubb, a public representative, had proposed a plan to settle all industrial disputes as a substitute for the resolution of organized labor demanding arbitration of the nation-wide steel strike.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Labor's demand that the nation-wide steel strike be arbitrated was reported to the National Industrial conference to-day by the committee of fifteen without recommendations but with the suggestion that if arbitration is undertaken the proposed committee of six be chosen by the three groups in the Conference from members or non-members of the Conference.

Thomas L. Chubb, chairman of the committee, announced that two groups in the committee had opposed the resolution proposing arbitration but that a majority of all the members of the committee had favored it.

There was no immediate action on the report, the Conference adjourning for an hour after there had been a sharp debate over interpretation of the rules.

NORTH RUSSIAN TROOPS ADVANCE

Take Positions From Bolsheviks 135 Miles South of Archangel

Archangel, Oct. 13.—Continuing their offensive operations on the northern front, Russian troops have captured Bolshevik positions over a quarter mile front near the village of Plestizkaia, on the Emitsa River, a branch of the Dwina, 135 miles south of this city. Reports from the front declare that, after several soldiers had been shot, the Bolshevik 48th Regiment was sent to the front lines, other reserves not being available.

Series of Successes. Interviewed as to the situation, a representative of the Northern Russian Government declared:

"The Russian army is now demonstrating determination despite the demands placed upon it by the withdrawal of the British troops. Our order would not be made public until it could be printed and distributed to the 4,000 local unions."

GO TO EUROPE IN SEARCH OF STYLES

Manufacturers of Women's Dresses Awakening to Opportunities

New York, Oct. 14.—More manufacturers of women's dresses are going to Europe in search of new style ideas as well as for the purpose of extending export trade also, to purchase fabrics, than ever before, according to a statement issued by Executive Director David N. Mosessohn of the Associated Dress Industries of America, the national chamber of commerce of the dress trade.

In this connection the Associated Dress Industries of America will shortly announce the establishment of a Paris office, as well as an office in London where manufacturers, while abroad, may register and be advised regarding trade conditions in the various European markets.

"Quite a number of manufacturers," said Mr. Mosessohn, "have completed arrangements for representation in the European fields through commissionaires, and this number is steadily increasing." It was further pointed out by Mr. Mosessohn that the manufacturers of dresses in this country are rapidly awakened by the enormous opportunities open to them for trade development with the European market, and in the past few weeks some manufacturers who have never left this country on a business mission are now going to Europe and many more are making plans for their departure to London, Paris and other important cities within the next few months.

"The importance of models as well as fabrics next season promise to be larger than before," Mr. Mosessohn added.

AUSTRALIA HAS VERY LARGE DEBT

Melbourne, Oct. 13.—(Reuters).—In the Federal House of Representatives Hon. Mr. Poynter, Minister without portfolio, in introducing the budget, said that the total revenue of 1918-19 was £44,075,000. The expenditure was over £45,000,000, of which £21,025,000 was due to the war. The total war expenditure had been nearly £311,500,000, of which £45,000,000 had been paid out of revenue. The estimated deficit was £3,250,000 for 1919-20. The public debt of the Commonwealth and the states amounted to nearly £708,000,000.

Mr. Poynter announced that there would be no taxation, but old age and invalid pensions would be increased from 12s. 6d. to 15s. weekly.

The Government shipping programme provided for twenty steamships of 4,000 tons, of which three had been launched, and four vessels of 3,000 tons, all of which were being built.

The Australian Government, he said, had contracted to have five steamships of 12,000 tons constructed in the United Kingdom. The net earnings of the Commonwealth line amounted to £3,500,000.

Melbourne, Oct. 14.—The constitutional alterations have passed both Houses, giving the Commonwealth Government power to deal with all industrial matters. The Opposition amendment to place the railway employees under the Commonwealth arbitration act was defeated by an overwhelming majority.

FRANCE CONTROLLED ON PEACE BASIS

Paris, Oct. 14.—Decrees published in The Journal Officiel place the interior affairs of France on a peace basis, ending the state of siege, lifting the censorship and transferring jurisdiction over police affairs from the army to the prefectures.

To end the state of war with Germany it is still necessary to deposit in the Foreign Office a text of the treaty signed by President Poincare, which will be filed with the ratification document signed by President Ebert of Germany, which already is in hand. To these will be added the ratification documents signed by the Kings of Great Britain and Italy.

The exchange of ratifications will be made at the Foreign Office without ceremony.

NO TYPE SET BUT MAGAZINE ISSUED

New York, Oct. 14.—Elimination of type-setting, one of the costliest of magazine production operations, by the use of plates made by photographing the original typewritten copy has been accomplished in the October 18 issue of the Literary Digest, consisting of eighty pages.

This radical innovation, which was brought about by the printers' strike in this city, leads the publishers to suggest that "it is possible in this age of marvels that the whole future of magazine production may be revolutionized by the elimination of type setting."

The make-up of the magazine is in no way changed, the only difference being that the style of type is that used on typewriters, and is uniform in all the reading matter throughout the number.

The right hand side of the column is irregular, as in ordinary typewritten copy. Each page is in effect a photograph copy of the original article as written on the typewriter.

TROOPS ADVANCING AGAINST BOLSHEVIKI

Denikine Gaining South of Moscow; Judenitch Moving Toward Petrograd

London, Oct. 14.—A wireless message from General Denikine yesterday claimed further victories against the Bolsheviks in the direction of Orel and also in the region of Kiev. General Denikine announced the capture of Ostrozhensky-Vashnopol, a town which cannot be located on the map, with 100 prisoners. The Bolsheviks made an attack on his army with large forces in the vicinity of Orel, but were unsuccessful.

General Denikine captured 3,500 prisoners and occupied Krovie (possibly Kromy), about twenty-five miles southwest of Orel.

General Denikine's forces also occupied the important provincial capital, Chernigoff, about seventy miles north of Kiev.

The advance was reported as continuing.

The capture of Yamburg marks the beginning of the push by troops of the Russian Northwestern Army of General Sudenitch toward Petrograd, according to a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Libau. General Gosenapp is reported to have taken four complete Bolshevik regiments, 2,000 other Soviet troops and the entire staff of the Tenth Bolshevik Division. His losses are reported to have been 27 killed and 150 wounded.

General Vladimiroff, who was mainly instrumental in organizing the offensive, is quoted by the dispatch as saying that the German-Russian offensive under Colonel Wolff—Bismont came too late to stop the advance of the Russian Northwestern Army.

Recent reports received via Copenhagen placed General Denikine's forces within thirty miles at Orel, on the road to Moscow, and scarcely more than 200 miles from Moscow itself.

The Bolsheviks were then reported to be discouraged and surrendering in large numbers, but evidently gathered their forces for a counter-attack in hopes of saving that important railroad and commercial centre.

The capture of Chernigoff, in quite another field of operations, indicates that General Denikine is making headway against Bolshevik and Ukrainian troops in the vicinity of Kiev, and is coming near to a junction with the Polish army.

EX-AUSTRIAN WARSHIP SANK IN HURRICANE

Rome, Oct. 14.—The Austrian warship Kaiser Franz Josef I., which had been allotted to the Jugo-Slav navy, sank during a hurricane, according to a dispatch. She was carrying ammunition for the Jugo-Slav army.

The Kaiser Franz Josef I. was an old second-class cruiser, completed in 1891. Her displacement was about 4,000 tons, and her armament consisted of two 9.4-inch, six 5.5-inch, and sixteen 1.8-inch guns. Her complement while in the Austrian navy was 426 men.

LONDON COMMENTS ON G. T. R. SCHEME

London, Oct. 14.—The financial editor of The London Times approves the terms of the Grand Trunk Railway settlement, and says it will be a relief to all concerned that an end has been made to these long negotiations.

Presumably, he adds, the sanction of the Canadian Parliament will be obtained.

The financial writer of The Daily News, after discussing the complexity of the issues, says that all that can be hoped for at present is that the award will be liberal enough for a plan for division which will give the ordinary stockholders a reasonable pittance without encroaching appreciably on the stipulated rates.

NEW GULF ISLANDS BOARD OF TRADE

Forward Step Taken at Meeting on Salt Spring Island

Ganges, Oct. 14.—The attempt to overcome the dividing waterways and unite the several Gulf Islands into a civic unit on a business basis has come to a successful issue, and the Gulf Islands Board of Trade may be considered a fact.

The movement has grown out of the transportation committee appointed by the islands several years ago to secure a suitable boat service to give them access to the markets of Victoria and Vancouver direct. Two years ago this committee suggested that a Board of Trade be formed as the only business method of bringing the islands together and to give them the advantage of united action. An enthusiastic meeting just held gives promise of success.

Will Grow.

Fifty-seven men signed the certificate for incorporation, and this membership has every indication of being doubled in the near future.

The hope was unanimously expressed that the islands of Moresby, Thetis and Gabriola would soon be represented on the Board.

The following are the officers and council: J. C. Leung, Ganges, president; E. S. W. Corbett, Hope Bay, vice-president; W. M. Mount, Ganges, secretary-treasurer; Council, H. D. Payne, Saturna; A. R. Spaulding, South Pender; A. H. Menzies, Hope Bay; H. G. Scott, Port Washington; J. D. Hill, Mayne Island; Fred. Robson, Mayne Island; J. W. Bellhouse and F. Burrill, Galiano; H. Price, Puffin; P. Scott and G. W. Dean, Salt Spring Island.

A resolution was unanimously passed, urging the C. P. R. to put on a suitable boat to give direct transportation to Victoria and Vancouver without transfer of passengers on freight. The difficulty of securing such service owing to war conditions, has been appreciated, and the disadvantages suffered have been patiently borne, but the war is over, and it was keenly felt by all that the time has come for a better service to meet the growing demands of these islands.

The Council is to meet in two weeks, when the by-laws will be presented and further organization carried out.

Pleasant Event.

The Ganges Chapter of the I. O. O. F. gave a supper and concert followed by a dance to the returned soldiers of the island in the Mahon Hall, Ganges, on Friday evening. Sixty men sat down to beautifully decorated tables and enjoyed an excellent spread. General Sir Wilfrid Wilson occupied the seat of honor, with Capt. Bion, of the French Army, on his left. A reference by Gen. Wilkinson to the presence of the latter as "A representative of our great ally as well as fellow citizen," was received with a storm of applause by the men.

The General, in presenting a toast to the Regent, Mrs. E. Walter, and the ladies of the Chapter, said that as a professional soldier of three campaigns, this was the first time he had ever been given a dinner. The toast was received by the boys with three rousing cheers and a tiger.

The following excellent programme was presented: Piano solo, by Miss Dora Laidy; violin solos, by Mrs. Baker and vocal solos, by Miss Dean, Miss Batten, Mrs. Robinson and Mr. Lowther. Two excellent recitations were given by Miss Wayne, of St. John, N. B. Mr. Lowther closed the programme with several choruses reminiscent of days in France, in which the boys enthusiastically joined.

NEW RECTOR OF ST. JOHN'S, DUNCAN

Duncan, Oct. 14.—Bishop Schofield spent Sunday in Cowichan, preaching at St. Peter's and St. Andrew's in the morning and afternoon, and to the united congregations of St. Mary's and St. John's in the evening. St. John's Church had been very beautifully decorated for the thanksgiving harvest festival, and His Lordship's sermon was in the text, "Whatever a Man Sows That Shall He Also Reap." He pointed out the importance of the beginnings of things in nature and in the training of children. Special emphasis was placed on the seedtime of the "forward movement."

After the service the members of both congregations repaired to St. John's Hall to talk over the appointment of a rector. Between fifty and sixty were present, and thirty-three members voted. The Rev. Arthur Bischofberger was the choice made by a large majority.

The newly appointed rector graduated from King's College, London, was ordained and worked for two years in Suffolk, came to this diocese in 1914 and was at Cumberland until 1916, when he went overseas. Mr. Bischofberger will take up his duties in about a fortnight, and will remove to Cowichan with his wife and child.

CHANGE PREDICTED IN BRITISH NAVY

London, Oct. 14.—The political correspondent of The Evening News says there probably will be a great change in Great Britain's naval policy with the advent of Admiral Lord Beatty as First Sea Lord in succession to Vice Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, who resigned last week.

"Admiral Beatty's friends," says the correspondent, "declare he believes the future warship will be an oil-driven submersible battleship, and that the Admiralty's plans may be shaped in accordance with this belief. The dreadnought will not be altogether eliminated, but it will be considered of secondary importance."

OUT OF BREATH.

The small boy had been naughty, so his mother had sent him away from the table without any fruit. For an hour he sat sobbing in the corner, but at last, as nobody took any notice of him, he thought it was time to cease.

"Now you've finished making that horrible noise," said his mother, "I hope you are going to be a good boy."

"I haven't finished," he said, passionately breaking forth into sobs once again, "I was only resting."

Fortune-Teller (reading cards)—"You have money coming to you, but no sickness whatever."

Client—"That's singular! I'm the new doctor across the street."

NOMINATIONS FOR ONTARIO CONTEST

Almost 300 Candidates Are in Field for 111 Seats

Four Conservatives, Including Two Ministers, Elected by Acclamation

Toronto, Oct. 14.—All previous records for the number of candidates seeking election to the Ontario Legislature at any provincial election were broken yesterday, when the official nominations for the contest to take place next Monday were held. Almost 300 candidates have thrown their hats into the ring for the 111 seats in the Legislative Assembly. Those in the contest represent many different classes and factions.

Four candidates, all Conservatives, will take their places in the Legislature without a fight, as that number of acclamations were given.

The Government has 100 standard-bearers in the race. The Liberals come next with 70, and the United Farmers of Ontario have 64 straight candidates, although they have eight or ten more who are running on a joint Labor-Farmer ticket.

The Independent Labor Party has 14 straight candidates nominated. In addition it has one running on a Soldier-Labor ticket and eight on the joint Farmer-Labor ticket.

Grand Army Man.

The Socialist Party has two candidates in the contest, while there is one standard-bearer of the Grand Army of Canada, who is running in Hamilton.

Then, too, there are two candidates who style themselves Independent Liberals and four who are listed as Independent Conservatives.

At least a dozen who are running as Independents, including one or two out-and-out Anti-Prohibitionists and one straight Prohibitionist.

Three of the candidates who have been elected to the Legislature by acclamation are former members. They are Brigadier-General the Hon. A. E. Ross, Kingston; Hon. H. J. Cody, Northeast Toronto; and W. D. Black, Addington. The new man who will take his seat without a contest is J. R. Cook, of North Hastings.

Apart from the three members of the Legislature who died and whose places were not filled by bye-elections, there are 24 members of the last Legislature who are not candidates in the election next Monday.

Six of these are Liberals—Hugh Monroe, Gengarry; C. M. Bowman, West Bruce; J. C. Elliott, West Middlesex; S. C. Ducharme, North Essex; S. R. Atkinson, North Norfolk, all of whom retired, and T. S. Davidson, North Brant, who was defeated in convention.

Defeated.

Of the seventeen former Conservative members the following were defeated at party conventions: Charles McKeown, Dufferin; C. N. Cameron, North Gray; Sam Nesbitt, East Northumberland; and J. R. Dragarvel, of Leeds.

The others who retired are: John Allen, West Hamilton; T. A. Brewer, East Elgin; H. Elber, South Huron; Mark Irish, Northeast Toronto; J. Bennis, South Perth; John Carew, South Victoria; George Aultman, West Kent; Joseph Russell, Riverdale; A. R. Rickert, South Wentworth; E. W. Owen, Southeast Toronto; Tom Hook, Southwest Toronto; R. McElroy, Carleton; John McFarlane, East Middlesex; and J. Shearer, Stormont.

Nominations.

The nominations were as follows: The nominations in Toronto were not exciting, except in Southwest Toronto, where H. H. Dewar, the Liberal leader, was heckled and interrupted to such an extent that at one stage the police had to be called in to restore quiet to the meeting. Mr. Dewar's war record was the chief matter on which he was treated roughly.

"I KNOW IT'S BEST IN THE WORLD," SAYS MRS. JAMES KING

Rheumatism Ends After Tanlac Builds Her Up—Feels Like Different Woman Now

"I have the utmost faith in Tanlac, and as a medicine I think it has no equal," was the statement made to a Tanlac representative recently by Mrs. James King, 461, Eleven A Street, Northwest, Calgary, Alberta. "I had rheumatism so bad until I was almost helpless," continued Mrs. King, "and I had tried so many different medicines and treatments and got no relief that I thought there was no hope for me. The rheumatism first appeared in my right hip and was so severe and spread so fast that in no time I was suffering in my other hip and in my back too. I was so crippled up from rheumatism in my right limb that I could hardly walk, and I spent night after night without sleeping a wink and at times it was torture for me to even attempt to move."

"My suffering goes back over two years and I just hate to think of the agony I went through and the many things I tried but without relief until I heard about Tanlac and began to take it. I am sincerely thankful that I finally found such a wonderful medicine, for if it hadn't been for it you would not see me feeling so fine today. After I began taking Tanlac my appetite got better, and my nerves settled down and I felt built up in every way. Then after that, the rheumatism started to leave me and I began to gain in weight and strength and now I am doing my own housework as well as doing all the family washing—and I have eleven children, too. I have been built up wonderfully, and I just feel like a different woman altogether, and I'm in better health than I've been in many years. I just want to praise Tanlac all the time, for it is responsible for my well and happy condition, and you can just tell the people that I know the best medicine in the world is Tanlac."

ident of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, in a speech last night in support of the Labor Candidate in West Ottawa for the Ontario Legislature, made a plea for the return of a healthy opposition drawn from the ranks of Labor and the United Farmers. President Moore alluded to the existence of "political war chests" and challenged the Conservatives and Liberals to make known the source of the campaign funds, so that the public might know who are the "masters of the Government."

R. J. McCormick Dead.
Waterford, Ont., Oct. 14.—Toward the end of the meeting following the East Lambton nomination here yesterday, the death was announced of Robert J. McCormick, ex-M.P., who represented the constituency in the Legislature for eight years previous to the re-election of Dr. J. B. Martin.

SUICIDE PACT.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 14.—The bodies of two women found yesterday in Berkeley Lake here, have not been identified. Death was caused by drowning and the coroner said indications were that the drowning was the result of a suicide pact. A letter addressed to Edith Cook, of Brisbane, Nebraska, was the only clue to identification.

A policeman and others identified the bodies as those of Mrs. Lillian McKelvey and Mrs. Auguste Llan sisters. This identification was disproved when the sisters were found much alive.

RUSSIA'S TOPSY-TURVYDOM.

The historian who may try to follow each thread of the tangled skein of Russia's developments since the revolution will have a heart-rending task on his hands. This is particularly true of the kaleidoscopic events of the present time in what once was the great empire of the Czars. Several different wars are going on there, and unless something like stability shall develop out of them before next winter, conditions in that unhappy country will be fearful.

General Denikine's army from the south has reached a point within 200 miles of Moscow, notwithstanding the stubborn resistance of the Bolsheviks. How much farther this force will be able to penetrate will depend upon the quantity of supplies it will receive from the outside. A shipload which recently left Italy for the Black Sea was diverted to Fiume in consequence of a mutiny on the vessel. Denikine's original purpose was to form a junction with the Ukrainian army under Petlura, which also was fighting the Bolsheviks, but a few days ago, according to a dispatch, the Ukraine declared war upon Denikine. Hence, both Denikine's army and the Ukrainians, while at war with the Bolsheviks, are at war with one another. This situation, while complicated, to say the least, is not new in that astonishing part of the world. Some months ago the Poles and the Ukrainians, while both fiercely opposing the Bolsheviks, were desperately contending with another for the possession of Lemberg in Galicia.

In Courland German troops under General von der Goltz, in conjunction with pro-German Russians, are trying to wrest Riga from the Letts. The Lettish army originally was sympathetic with the Bolsheviks, and at one time supplied Lenin and Trotsky with their best fighting material. The von der Goltz forces declare they are warring against the Bolsheviks in fighting the Letts, but the Allies have demanded that Germany stop the participation of the German troops in this struggle and are about to take strong measures to enforce their demand. Meanwhile, their war vessels are assisting the Letts in the defence of Riga. The Berlin Government claims it is powerless to disarm the Germans fighting under von der Goltz; that is to say, that it has no military resources sufficient to suppress a German army of 35,000 men operating in the Baltic provinces of Russia. If this is so, Germany has been reduced to an exceedingly helpless condition in a military sense. Berlin, however, undertakes to stop the dispatch of supplies to the front, and if this undertaking be carried out it should be effective. In any case Germany must find a way to deal with the Baltic Germans and the Allies should maintain enough pressure upon her to force her to do it.

Meanwhile, the Russian northwestern army is said to be advancing toward Petrograd. This is a force composed of Russian anti-Bolsheviks and Finns. It has been reported as "advancing towards Petrograd" for the last six months. In the east Kolchak's army is reorganizing for another advance across the Urals, but this force, which a few months ago was the most formidable menace the Bolsheviks had to meet, suffers from lack of supplies and its long, tenuous line of communication with Vladivostok. It is unlikely that Kolchak will ever make much headway and, in a military sense, he, Denikine and the anti-Bolshevik Russian northern armies are handicapped by their inability to get into touch with one another. If the Bolsheviks were sound at home and were properly equipped and led, they would be able to take the fullest advantage of the interior lines upon which they are operating. But their forces, being largely mercenaries, are not dependable, while every advance of their enemies stimulates counter-revolutionary sentiment and activities in Moscow. The autocracy of Lenin and Trotsky cannot stand up under defeats in the field any more than the autocracy of Czardom could stand up under similar pressure.

RATHER BEWILDERING.

The Great War Veterans' Association is not a political organization. Its constitution, as we understand it, prohibits its participation in party politics. The announcement that the president of the provincial body has expressed his willingness to take the platform on behalf of Mr. Barnard, therefore, causes some natural bewilderment. It is true this official might claim that, for the time being, he is detaching himself from his position in the Association and is acting in a strictly personal capacity, but it may be assumed that if he were not the President or a prominent member of the organization he would not have been asked to take part in the contest. If Mr. Barnard himself had not been a member of the Association, we probably would have had no announcement that the President was willing to come to Victoria and participate in the campaign.

Officially, Mr. Barnard is the candidate of the B. C. Federated Labor Party, which is dominated by extremists and influenced largely by advocates of the soviet system of Government patterned on the Moscow model, of which Lenin, Trotsky and Jake Peters are the chief proponents. One of the speakers on his platform on Saturday night, a Dr. Curry from Vancouver, declared himself to be in favor of the soviet form of Government, and as a revolution would have to be the precursor of that sort of an institution in Canada we assume the Doctor to be a revolutionist. He asserted that the beauties of this system had been foully misrepressented by a lying press and that, indeed, Lenin, Trotsky & Co., were giving Russia a proper form of Government. We wonder if Dr. Curry, hoping to see in the election of Mr. Barnard the beginning of the end of Canada's present form of Government, aspires to the dignity of a Commissary of Public Safety. What a fine time he would have with the wicked bourgeoisie when he got after them with the implements of torture inseparable from his profession! Jake Peters orders his victims sent to the firing squad, gibbet and other crude forms of annihilation which could appeal only to one who had spent many years in jail for advocating and participating in brutal crimes. The Doctor, we presume, would send them to the chair.

Does Mr. Barnard agree with the views of his co-adjutor from Vancouver? He must or he never would have permitted that gentleman to speak on his platform. Does he favor the extremist doctrine of the B. C. Federated Labor Party? He must or he never would have become a candidate under the auspices of that organization. He cannot be both with the advocates of a soviet and against them. If he were in Moscow, for instance, Messrs. Lenin, Trotsky and Jake Peters, or whoever is running the "proper system of Government" there, to quote Dr. Curry, would judge him by the company he keeps.

There is nothing in common between the overwhelming majority of the Great War Veterans and the convictions of Dr. Curry, for example, or the aspirations of the B. C. Federated Labor Party. On the contrary the members of that great organization are staunch advocates of our existing institutions of Government, inexorable opponents of anything that makes for anarchy and chaos and resolute champions of law and order. How can any official of the G. W. V. A. consistently, in any capacity, advocate a cause promoted under such auspices as those which govern the candidature of Mr. Barnard?

THE RIGHT POLICY.

After hearing a few brief details about the financial conditions of this Province and its urgent need of greater settlement, two representative British business men from England, who hold between them about 100,000 acres of non-producing agricultural land, told Premier Oliver on Saturday morning that the Government's land policy compelling development was a correct one to pursue. On more than one occasion recently the charge of confiscation has been levelled at the Land Settlement Board by reason of its method of appraisal, which sets the price it is prepared to pay to relieve the absentee owner, or the owner who persists in "waiting for something to turn up," of property held out of production.

The two gentlemen from the other side of the Atlantic, however, promptly saw the force of the argument from an economic standpoint and found little difficulty in appreciating the obligations imposed upon the Government of the day, obligations which appeal primarily for a more intensified settlement in the agricultural areas. As a result of the interview, it is gratifying to observe, the owners of the land in question—embracing holdings in the fertile valleys of the northern central section of the Province—expect to evolve a colonization plan that would induce Old Country farmers to come to this Province, take up the idle acres and conform to the requirements of the Land Settlement and Development Act.

Nor need there be any fear of overrunning British Columbia with the wrong kind of settler. Little encouragement should be given to those who do not understand the work. Former policies of Canadian governments have encouraged too many people with no experience in agriculture and no adaptability for it.

EVIDENCE TO BE ADMITTED.

It is satisfactory to note that an opportunity will be given to the Rev. A. E. Cooke to substantiate his allegations of practices peculiar to the wholesale district of Vancouver. According to a dispatch from the Terminal City, Commissioner Hulme will take the reverend gentleman's evidence at to-morrow morning's sitting.

In a sermon recently delivered by Mr. Cooke and afterwards published in pamphlet form it was charged that a powerful combine existed among the wholesalers of Water Street and that food produce was periodically destroyed in incinerators. Despite the somewhat elaborate method of getting his charges before the people of Vancouver, and the apparent popularity of the brochure, there has been no specific denial from the wholesale quarter itself. One of its most prominent members referred to Mr. Cooke's statements when testifying before the Commissioner on Thursday last; but apart from declaring that "we can always expect something sensational from Mr. Cooke," detailed refutation appeared to be lacking.

As we have pointed out before, however, the reverend gentleman's charges are of such a grave nature as to warrant special investigation. Procedure virtually in restraint of trade in other parts of Canada may or may not be a stranger to "wholesale row" in Vancouver. On that account no evidence bearing on the subject should be refused.

THE COUNCIL OF HEALTH.

The newly-constituted Dominion Council of Health is to be commended for the formulation of a vigorous policy to combat venereal disease. At the sessions of the Council held in Ottawa last week definite results were achieved and a plan of campaign arrived at. Full assurance of co-operative action was given by each provincial representative and a complete unanimity of opinion reached as to the proper measures to be adopted.

In this connection, it will be remembered, the British Columbia Legislature passed an Act at its last session designed to fit into such a Dominion policy as should be evolved by the then contemplated Federal Department of Health. Now that the Council has discussed and settled the question from the national point of view, legislative machinery, so far as this Province is concerned, is in readiness for co-operation.

NOTE FROM ALLIES ON BALTIC SITUATION

Germany Sharply Informed
Statements About Goltz
Not Believed

Paris, Oct. 14.—Following is the text of the note sent to the German Government by the Allied and Associated Powers regarding the evacuation of the Baltic provinces:

"The Allied and Associated Governments note the formally expressed pretensions of the German Government—note of October 9—to undertake and to pursue in a most energetic manner the withdrawal of its troops from the Baltic regions and Lithuania.

"They also consider as opportune the measures decided upon by the German Government for that purpose. But when the German Government contends that the action it has taken must absolve it from the charge of fulfilling its honorable obligations under the armistice, it is necessary to point out that the orders of the German Government have, notwithstanding repeated demands and remonstrances on the part of the Allied and Associated Governments, been so long delayed that the German Government now claims to be practically powerless to enforce them.

Calculated.
"It is difficult not to believe that its delay has been designed, calculated as it was to lead to the very results which the German Government now affects to deplore. It seems indeed impossible otherwise to explain its refusal to recall Gen. von der Goltz, who has been its official instrument in creating the present situation, in open defiance of the representations of the Allied and Associated Governments.

"Why was the German recall, thrice demanded, refused? Why was he (von der Goltz) after being summoned to Berlin only recently, sent back deliberately to the scene of his atrocities, except to complete, under order of his office, the organization which now affords to the German Government the pretext that the troops, hitherto paid, clothed and transported by it, have passed out of its control?

"Has Gen. von der Goltz acted contrary to its instructions? If so why has not his insubordination been punished, either by formal dismissal or in any other way?

Not Believed.
"Unless some very much more satisfactory explanation of these matters than those hitherto afforded are given by the German Government, the Allied and Associated Governments cannot admit the contention that the German Government has, as it asserts continually, made the most energetic efforts to withdraw the German troops from the Baltic states.

"According to recent information received from Latvia, the situation has suddenly become more grave on account of the offensive taken by German troops on October 8. Other troops have been violating the Courland-Latvian neutral zone, and have bombarded Latvian positions by armored trains, by aeroplanes and by poison gas shells. They have threatened the city of Riga and brought about the formation in Courland of a German-Russian Government opposed to the loyal Government already established.

A Mission.
"In view of this situation the Allied and Associated Governments maintain the principle of the full responsibility of the German Government in the carrying out of the evacuation of the region, and they mean to maintain the integrity of the coercive measures announced in the third telegram of September 27 as long as the evacuation has not been undertaken and pursued with all desirable celerity. However, for the purpose of encouraging the execution of the evacuation and the lending of assistance to the German Government, the Allied and Associated Governments expect to send Allied representatives, whose mission should consist of (a) receiving from the German Government information regarding measures decided upon as well as in proposing measures which the Mission itself may deem advisable; (b) in exercising on the spot, and with all power of action, effective control of the execution of the said measures. The chairmanship of this Allied Commission should be vested in the general officer appointed by the Allied and Associated Governments. Only when that general officer has informed the Supreme Council of the Allied and Associated Governments that operations of evacuation are proceeding normally, can the stopping of the measures provided for by the telegram of September 27 be considered.

"The German Government is asked kindly to send the answer as soon as possible.

"The Allied and Associated Governments hereby notify the German Government that they hold it responsible for any acts of hostility by German troops directed against their representatives in the Baltic provinces."

German Statement.
London, Oct. 14.—An official statement published in Berlin on Saturday denied formally the allegation in the Lettish appeal to the Entente that German troops in the Baltic provinces had done everything possible to support Bolshevikism and had attacked the Letts from the rear. The German rejoinder declared that this statement was contrary to the truth and was an agitation against Germany.

Germany had not broken the peace, it was declared, but on the contrary had done everything to enforce the terms of peace in the case of the misled troops in a portion of the Baltic provinces. It was a matter of record,

B. C. E. R. NOT NOW UNDER PROVINCIAL COMMISSION

Vancouver, Oct. 14.—Public Utilities Commissioner John L. Retallack brought the British Columbia Electric Railway inquiry to a sudden adjournment at 11 o'clock this forenoon when the Commission convened at the courthouse. His action and announcement came as a big surprise to those present.

Immediately at the opening of the session this forenoon Commissioner Retallack referred to the frequent adjournments recently. He now explained these had been caused by an amending section of the Dominion Railway Act, which had been passed and which was now pamphlet form.

KING OF ATLANTIS' FRIEND IS HERE

J. M. Lacey is One of Few Members of White Brotherhood Incarnated

An intimate friend of King Lamas, one of the early rulers of the continent of Atlantis, is visiting Victoria in the person of J. M. Lacey. Atlantis is the continent that is said to have been located out in the Atlantic ocean ages ago but disappeared without trace before history began to be written.

Mr. Lacey, who is being entertained here by G. H. Robertson and others, says he can quite distinctly remember King Lamas, his old friend, and the life the Atlantians used to lead. In one of his early incarnations he was one of the respected citizens of the empire of Atlantis and he says a number of Victorians he has run across are prominent citizens of Atlantis who have been reincarnated to dwell in this age and this country. To only a chosen few, Mr. Lacey explains, who develop it is given the power to remember their former incarnations. Mr. Lacey is one of the first members of the White Brotherhood to visit Victoria. Membership in the White Brotherhood is confined mostly to being on the astral plane, but there are a few souls incarnated here that have been admitted. Members of this brotherhood in the other planes are called divas, and they go about doing good, warning people of dangers and doing kind acts, often through the few members of the brotherhood on this earth.

Performs Miracles.

Numbers of helpful acts that have been performed by the diva through him are related by Mr. Lacey, who lectured here twice during the week-end to several hundred persons. In one house on Teraulay Street, Toronto, as he was passing he was drawn in by some mystic power to find a man and woman who had lost the key to the only door leading to the upper part of the house. The floor had recently been recovered and Mr. Lacey at once realized that the key had dropped to the floor and been covered by the new flooring. The power worked through him, the key was resolved into its elements, which passed through the floor, materialized and he handed it to the troubled man and his wife.

Numerous miracles, such as healing the sick by touch and finding lost persons were performed by him during his residence in Manitoba, Mr. Lacey says.

Helped in South Africa.

During the South African war Mr. Lacey was in Manitoba. During one of the serious engagements he transposed himself from Manitoba to the Veldt where the British forces did not realize the danger that was hanging over them. He rallied the forces, brought up the reserves which did not know of the trouble, and saved the battalion from annihilation. From Manitoba he also located the husband and wife of a woman living near him. He found the husband as a soldier in South Africa and the wife living in the south of England. He gave his audience the names of the parties. The three parties had been lost from one another for a long time. He transposed himself to South Africa, read the number and regiment of the husband, telephoned it to the wife in England and telephoned to the husband the location of his wife. Both wrote the same day, their letters crossed on the ocean, and they received them from one another a day apart. Only members of the White Brotherhood can do this.

Lived With Druids.

Mr. Lacey lived on this earth several times during the Dark Ages, and in one of his incarnations he was known as Lorango. What particularly impressed him during the dark ages was the black art that was practiced. He can remember this quite distinctly and can give numerous instances of it. The Atlantians, he says, had a high civilization and political organization. They were a strong maritime nation, but forgot their duties toward helping their fellows. He asserts that they had black art, down to a fine science, but they permitted the evil features to overbalance the good with the result that it was largely responsible for the destruction of the nation in the end.

During his sleep at nights, Mr. Lacey by means of his knowledge of the astral plane travels around and visits his friends.

A BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and Nurse Jane's Hat.

Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard R. Garis.)

"Nurse Jane," said Uncle Wiggily, the bunny rabbit gentleman, to his muskrat lady housekeeper one morning, "do you want to go to the moving pictures with me this evening?" "I shall be delighted," answered Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "But my new hat has not arrived, as yet, from the right and nine cent store, where I ordered it yesterday. I don't feel like going without my new hat."

"Oh, I'll go get it for you," Uncle Wiggily said. "It will be a great pleasure for me. Tell me what it is like—your hat, I mean, so I'll bring back the right one."

"Oh, my new hat is a dream!" said the muskrat lady, clapping her paws and looking up toward the sky. "It is the color of the rainbow, with cobweb lace like fleecy clouds and ribbons like the autumn leaves."

"Some hat! as the boys say," remarked Uncle Wiggily. "Well, I trust you may have a good time with it at the moving pictures. Now I'll hop along!"

So the bunny rabbit gentleman hopped, skipped and jumped over the woods and through the fields until he came to the seven and eight cent store.

"I'll take Nurse Jane's hat, if you please," he said to the little mouse girl clerk behind the counter.

"Yes, it is all ready," she answered. "Oh, it's a love of a hat! It has colors like soap bubbles, with frosty lace like snow flakes and the ribbons are like the tints of sunset!" and she tied her tail in a double bow knot she was so aesthetic-like and demure.

"Well," spoke Uncle Wiggily, slowly,

"Nurse Jane didn't say it was like that, but it may mean the same thing. I'll take it!"

The little mouse girl clerk gave the bunny rabbit gentleman a large square box.

"What's this?" he asked.

"Nurse Jane's hat," was the answer. "It's in the box."

Uncle Wiggily carried it as best he could, and on his way back he hopped to the hollow stump bungalow. He was going through the woods, wondering why it was that muskrat ladies wore such funny hats, when, all of a sudden, the bunny rabbit gentleman heard a rustling in the bushes.

"I wonder what that is?" he said to himself. He came to a stop, peeked out, and there he saw the bad old Pipsisewah on the path in front of him.

"O he's waiting for me!" thought Uncle Wiggily, and he gave such a jump that he caught Nurse Jane's hat box on a bramble briar bush and tore a large hole in it—tore a hole in the box, not the hat, I'm glad to say. Then Uncle Wiggily crouched down to hide. As yet the Pipsisewah had not seen him.

"Dear me! What am I to do?" thought the bunny rabbit.

There was only one path for Uncle Wiggily to take in going home, and the Pipsisewah was right in the middle of it.

"I can't go to the left because of the bramble briar bushes," thought the bunny. "They'll catch in, and the box worse than ever, and maybe tear the hat too, for all I know. And I can't go to the right because there's a big puddle of water there, and if I try to jump over that I may fall in the mud and spoil Nurse Jane's new hat. And I can't go back, for it would take me a long time, and we'd be late for the moving pictures. O dear! How shall I get home safe with Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy's new bonnet?"

Uncle Wiggily took another look through the bushes. The Pipsisewah was still there, waiting for the bunny to come along. Then Mr. Longears looked in! Nurse Jane's hat through the hole in the box.

He saw yellow goldenrod flowers, and purple asters. He saw brown red golden and purple leaves. He saw slimy cobweb lace, and ribbons the color of soap bubbles, so that the hat looked just like a patch

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN

Mrs. F. Lloyd Mutrie (nee Flora Patton) will be at home to her friends on Thursday October 16 from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Phipps has returned to her home in this city after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ben Wilson at New Westminster.

The Misses Marjorie Sword, D. Fair, K. Boorman and Jessie Dorman, went over to Vancouver for the holiday. During their stay in the mainland city they were guests at the Hotel Vancouver.

Chas. F. Eagles and his bride (nee Mabel Florence Waters) arrived home on Saturday after a two weeks' honeymoon trip on the mainland, and have taken up their residence in their new home on Dundas Street.

James Macpherson, lately of Slesse Sheep Ranch, William Head, left yesterday for the Makura for a three months' stay in New Zealand. On his return he will visit Scotland, where he was largely engaged in sheep business.

Viscountess Rhonda and Sir Humphrey Mackworth entertained at dinner at the Hotel Vancouver on Friday evening when their guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. Lloyd-Owen, Miss Salisbury, of Victoria; Dr. and Mrs. Devey, Major J. P. Fell and Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Scott.

To-morrow afternoon at the Empress Hotel, the Lady Douglas Chapter, I. O. O. E., will hold a reception in honor of Lady Currie, who is a member of the chapter. Afternoon tea will be served and an informal programme of music will enhance the pleasure of the occasion. It is anticipated that every member of the chapter, as well as of representatives other primary chapters, will seize the opportunity to extend a personal "welcome home" to the wife of the distinguished Canadian Corps commander. Lord Arthur has announced his intention of attending the function, although pressure of other engagements precludes the possibility of his staying being a lengthy one.

Over four hundred attended the very successful dance held at the Alexandra Club last night under the auspices of the sports committee of the G. W. V. A., and dancing was kept up until an early hour this morning. The ballroom was very effectively decorated with festoons of purple and gold, while a position of honor over the dais was given to the handsome banner of the organization. The attractive dance music was furnished by the G. W. V. A. orchestra. A very capable committee, composed of Comrades Gunn, Ross, Smith, Bryson and Ripley, had charge of the arrangements in general, while a committee under the direction of Mrs. Trip and comprising Mesdames McKie, Spaven, McLaughlin and Walsh, took charge of the buffet supper. At the door, receiving tickets and money, were Comrades Smith and Gunn. Comrades Greaves and Bryson acted as masters of ceremony.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the First Presbyterian Church on Saturday, when Lew Albert Pineo, of this city, was married to Helen, daughter of R. S. Thompson, until of the woods, when the leaves on the trees have been painted by Jack Frost. And the hat was very big.

"Ha!" I have an idea!" thought Uncle Wiggily. "I can put that hat on my head, scrooch down low and walk along. Maybe the Pipsisewah won't see me, for he'll think he is looking at a bunch of flowers, leaves and woodland grass. Maybe I can fool him."

Uncle Wiggily took Nurse Jane's hat out of the broken box. He put the hat on his head. It almost hid him from sight, and it did so completely when he stooped down.

"Now for it!" said the bunny, and he walked boldly out on the path right in front of the waiting Pipsisewah. Slowly Uncle Wiggily moved along, under the big hat, trimmed with artificial flowers and leaves and vines.

The Pipsisewah gave one look at the moving hat. He did not see Uncle Wiggily under it. On and on went the bunny rabbit.

"Dear me!" said the Pipsisewah, glancing at his wrist watch, "I wonder what's keeping Uncle Wiggily? I was told he was coming along here with a big box. That would make it very easy for me to catch him. But where is he?"

The Pip looked at the moving hat. He did not know Uncle Wiggily was under it.

"Dear me! The wind is blowing along a big bunch of autumn leaves and goldenrod flowers," said the bad chap. "But where is Uncle Wiggily?"

We know, but we won't tell; will we? He was under the hat. And a little later Uncle Wiggily hopped safely into the yard carrying the muskrat lady's new bonnet, not hurt a bit.

"Why didn't you bring it in a box?" Nurse Jane asked, and when the bunny told her how he had fooled the Pipsisewah, making believe he was part of the woods, Nurse Jane laughed. She and the bunny enjoyed the pictures very much, the muskrat lady taking off her hat, of course. And if the loaf of bread gets up early enough to help the breakfast rolls jump over the front fence to play tag with the milk bottle, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the walnuts.

Mr. Chetwynd being manager of the Anglesey estate at Waltham. The Marquess succeeded his cousin in the title in 1915 and is a Lieutenant in the Royal Horse Guards.

Baroness d'Anethan returned to her home in this city on Sunday from Seattle, where she has been spending the past two weeks as the guest of Mrs. Frederick Seymour. While in the Sound city the Baroness was the raison d'être of a number of social functions arranged by leading hostesses, among them being Judge and Mrs. Thomas, who entertained at a tea at the Golf Club in her honor, and Mrs. Raymond Ausias de Turenne, who gave a dinner at the Sunset Club on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left later on an automobile tour of Vancouver Island. They will make their future home in Alberni, where the bridegroom will be associated with the Foundation Company's work. Among the many presents received by the young couple was a handsome set of silverware from the employees of the Foundation Company, where both bride and bridegroom have been employed for some time past.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble W. Pirrie, of Vancouver, entertained a large number of guests on Friday afternoon at the Hotel Vancouver, in compliment to Lady Rhonda. The large reception room had a festive decoration of October blooms and leaves of rich autumn tints. A stringed orchestra discoursed music during the reception and vocal selections were given by Miss Audrey Mildmay. Mrs. Pirrie was handsomely gowned in black velvet and gold lace and wore a rare aquamarine necklace. Lady Rhonda was a centre of interest, as were the members of her party who were present and included their daughter, Viscountess Rhonda, Sir Humphrey Mackworth, Mr. and Mrs. W. Haigh, Colonel and Mrs. W. Haigh, Colonel and Mrs. J. D. Mackworth, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Carbow, Mr. and Mrs. V. Lloyd-Owen. The tea-table had a tall cut-glass vase of white chrysanthemums on a handsome Limerick lace centre in a setting of old rose satin and gold tissue. Specimen vases of delicate pink carnations adorned the corners. Mrs. Archibald Smith and Mrs. Cochrane did the honors and later Mrs. Ralph Smith and Mrs. De Pencier presided. The guests included Lieutenant-General Sir Arthur and Lady Currie, Brigadier-General and Mrs. Clark, Brigadier-General and Mrs. Odum, Bishop and Mrs. De Pencier and others.

HOLIDAY GAIETY

AT CRAIGDARROCH

Already since its opening a month ago, the S. C. R. Hospital at Craigdarroch, has had several social gatherings.

Last evening, however, was the first whist drive to be held, and the boys were a little perturbed as to the possibility of bringing it off without a general mix-up. However, everything went like the proverbial marriage bells, and most enjoyable evening was spent, the games all being contested keenly.

There were quite a number of ladies present, although to make up all the tables a few of the boys had to "camouflage" themselves as members of the fair sex.

The games finished towards ten o'clock, when excellent light refreshments were served, during which the prizes were presented to the fortunate winners. The ladies' prize was won by Nursing Sister H. Miller, of the Jubilee Hospital, and the gentleman's prize by W. Fletcher, both being visitors. The prizes were most kindly donated by Mr. W. S. Terry, of Terry's Drug Store.

Messrs. Donaldson, Newnes, Rolson, and Byrne, ably attended to their duties as members of the entertainment committee, while Matron McLeod together with some of the other ladies of the staff most kindly attended to the refreshments, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Great War Veterans' Association providing a plentiful supply of cakes.

It may be mentioned that Craigdarroch did not forget that yesterday was Thanksgiving Day. A special and most dainty dinner was served to the boys at noon, each patient being furnished with a charming little souvenir menu together with a roosebud, the gift of the instructor and pupils of the Domestic Science branch of the Normal School. The little menus which were hand-painted by the girls themselves, and were delightfully quaint and original, will be valued by the boys immensely.

WEEDING BRIDES.

The wedding day in most countries is the bride's day. It is her part to look happy, however long a face the groom may pull. Only in Lithuania is it a day of ostentatious gloom for her when, after being led through the lighted church by two young men, followed by her bridesmaids, she takes her stand in front of the altar, to be joined by the groom, also accompanied by several young men.

Behind the wedding party come the two mothers. While the priest performs the ceremony, the bride must weep incessantly. If she is unable to hide her real jubilation and cannot squeeze out a tear, she is considered guilty of a serious breach of etiquette and the ceremony is rendered more interesting by a vigorous scolding administered by the two mothers. Thus the maiden is expected to show the boon she is conferring upon mere man by becoming his wife.

This same attitude towards the Lithuanian woman is proved by all the customs of the little Baltic states that has declared itself a republic. It is shown, for instance, in old photographs, in these the woman is not standing with her hand on the shoulder of her seated lord, like our own photographs of a former period, but throne in state, with her husband and sons standing gallantly beside her.—Tit-Bits.

A visitor to the household of a colored man in Georgia, was much impressed by the thriftiness of the mistress of the house.

"That's a hard workin' wife you've got Joe," said he.

"Yes," said Joe, with the utmost gravity, "I wish I had a couple more like her."

GUM DECAY CAUSES TOOTH DECAY

Healthy teeth need healthy gums to hug them. Else they will loosen in Pyorrhea. Tiny openings will come in the gums to act as the gateways of disease germs, which infect the joints or tonsils, or cause other ailments. Forhan's prevents Pyorrhea, if used in time and used consistently. No mere toothpaste does. Are your gums tender gums? Are they bleeding gums? If so, you are certain to have Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease). Four out of five people who are over forty have it. To you we earnestly recommend Forhan's. It preserves the gums which hold the teeth secure. Brush your teeth with it. Forhan's cleans the teeth scientifically—keeps them white and clean. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

Two Thousand Tons on Way to Save Fruit Crop in British Columbia

Steps to relieve the sugar shortage in British Columbia with the object of saving that part of the fruit crop that has been set aside for preserving, have been taken by the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture. Before he left Ottawa for the Coast he brought the matter to the attention of the officials. Since his arrival in British Columbia, however, he has been investigating the seriousness of the shortage. He has been particularly active in his efforts to have something done because it means so much to those engaged in fruit-growing.

"Already the activities of the Board of Commerce have led to a cessation of the rising cost of living with a tendency to a reduction," said Dr. Tolmie to-day. "The Board began with an investigation of the sugar situation."

"Representation was received that it was feared that the price of sugar would reach twenty cents a pound in the near future and also that the Fruit Growers' Association of British Columbia feared that the fruit was in danger of being lost by reason of shortage of sugar. The Board on this immediately decided to hold an urgent meeting in Montreal. Accordingly the several refineries doing business in the East were heard from."

2,000 Tons Shipped West.

"As a result of that meeting an order was made that among other things 2,000 tons of sugar should be shipped within a week or ten days by five refineries of the Eastern provinces and the British Columbia refinery, in order to save the fruit situation in this Western province. An order was also made fixing the profits of the refineries, wholesalers and retailers. I am glad to be able to state that as a whole the public has greatly benefited by the terms of that order."

With respect to the sugar situation the following telegram was received by Hon. S. F. Tolmie, this morning:

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—Your telegram received. Have granted import license for 1,000 tons of sugar to Messrs. Paul, Ltd., Vancouver, from Hongkong. Am taking question of shipment from eastern refineries up with companies concerned in Montreal to-day, and hope to send favorable report before end of this week.

(Sd.) RHYS D. FAIRBURN, Canadian Trade Commission.

"The Board then took up the question of milk prices in the East and the prices charged by the packing interests. To-morrow the order which they have issued with regard to the packers goes into effect."

Pork Prices Must Descend.

"This order provides that after to-morrow pork and the product of hogs shall be sold by the owners or operators of packing houses at prices substantially the same as those which prevailed on March 10, 1919, and anyone who attempts to sell hog products at a price higher than this shall be deemed to have sold them at a price which is unreasonable and unjust and at an excessive profit."

"It is further provided that these prices of the products shall descend and proportionately with the falling prices of live hogs on the markets."

"In addition to these activities examinations have been appointed for British Columbia and other Western provinces to take evidence in all cases where complaints may be lodged with respect to profiteering and the high cost of living generally. These men have been actively engaged in making investigations covering milk, bacon, boots and shoes. This evidence is now being turned in to the Board."

"It is now proposed to investigate throughout Canada, the reported excessive charges on hides, boots and shoes, ladies' and girls' clothing and other leading articles of daily consumption and use by the public. Investigations into combines are also being undertaken."

Case Remanded.—The case of a Chinaman named Look, charged with obtaining goods under false pretences, was remanded in the Police Court this morning.

Currie Dinner Committee.—The committee in charge of the General Sir Arthur Currie dinner in the Drill Hall early last week will meet at 201 Union Bank Building at 8 o'clock to-night.

One of the features will be a moving picture entertainment showing happenings at the recent Provincial Conservative Convention at Vancouver. All Conservatives in the city are expected to attend. H. M. Graham, president, will preside, and W. J. Bowser, K.C., M.P.P., recently re-elected as Provincial Leader, will speak. ### ASKS MEN FOR VOTES ON COST OF LIVING

Thomas A. Barnard Also Declares Pension Allotment Is Undemocratic

"If you are satisfied with conditions as they exist, with the cost of living going higher and higher and profiteering rampant, then don't kick, but vote for Dr. Tolmie," said Thomas A. Barnard, labor candidate at the coming Federal by-election against the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, addressing the noon hour meeting of shipyard workers at the Ogden Point yards to-day.

"But if you want to take a shot at the high cost of living, vote for me." The candidate went on to say that from August to September this year, according to the Government figures, the cost of the staples for a family of five had risen $1 a week. This does not include clothes, rent or fuel.

He also declared that the widow of a private gets a pension of $40 a month plus a twenty per cent. bonus amounting in all to $48 a month, while the widow of a colonel gets $128 a month with a twenty per cent. bonus, making in all $151 a month.

"We don't believe that is the way to make Canada safe for democracy," said Mr. Barnard.

The labor candidate's managers to-day made arrangements for an overflow meeting to-morrow night when Major Richard Burde, M. C., M. P. P., will give his campaign speech. Wednesday night in the Crystal Theatre. The managers say that so much interest is being manifested in Major Burde's platform appearance that the overflow meeting will be necessary. This will be held in the Boilermakers' Hall, just across Broad Street, from the Crystal Theatre.

To entertain the crowds at the meeting a New Edison is being brought into the hall.

For instance, house building, the laying of foundations, the erection of walls and similar works will be fully described. All students who intend to take this course will meet in the High School at half-past seven to-morrow evening.

EPIDEMIC OF GARAGE ROBBERIES CONTINUES

The recent epidemic of garage robberies continued over the week-end. Some time between Saturday evening and this morning thieves entered the automobile repair shop of Middleton & Wilson at 613 Herald Street and made away with a quantity of tools. Entrance was gained through a back door.

VERY ACCOMMODATING.

"How did you get on?"

The sweet maiden breathed the words into her lover's manly ear as she met him in the passage. He had been "seeing father," and she wanted to know the result.

"Oh, your father is heartless!" said the young man indignantly. "I told him I could not live without you, and—"

"Yes, yes!"—impatiently. "What did he say?"

"He merely offered to pay my funeral expenses!"

NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT.

The village shop was very full when the dusty youth, with a pack on his back, entered.

"Any of you drive up in a cart with a white horse?" he asked the crowd casually.

"I did," said one burly farmer.

"Was there an old woman on the seat?" asked the youth.

"Yes, yes!" exclaimed the farmer excitedly.

"Can she manage that horse?" "Course she can!" "Then that's all right," said the youth, settling his pack more comfortably on his shoulders. "The horse has bolted, and the old woman hanging on to the tailboard screams like mad. But if she can manage horses, there ain't no cause to get excited, is there? Good morning!"

THIEF STEALS $30 IN BEDROOM WHILE OCCUPANT SLEEPS

Robber Escapes With Money Taken From Clothes Lying on Householder's Bed

A daring burglar entered a bedroom at 5 Alma Street, James Bay, at about five o'clock on Sunday morning and, while the occupant, J.
Andrew, was sleeping, made away with clothes in which there was the sum of $30. Mr. Andrew heard the thief making his way out of the house and rushed down stairs in an endeavor to catch him. The marauder was too quick for him, however, and escaped.

Before Dawn.
The burglar must have entered the Andrew home about two hours before dawn on Sunday morning.
Gaining entrance through the front door, he rifled the drawer in a hall stand, but secured nothing of value there. It is probable that he then tried the dining room door but, as a sewing machine happened to be standing against it on the inside, he gave this up as a bad job.

The upstairs was the thief's next objective. Without disturbing any of the people in the house, he made his way to Mr. Andrew's bedroom, silently opened the door and entered.
Meanwhile Mr. Andrew slept on while the burglar took his clothes, which were lying at the foot of the bed, and withdrew. Once down stairs again, he went through the garments, extracting $30 from a trouser pocket.

At this juncture Mr. Andrew was awakened by the sound of the visitor in the hall. Rushing downstairs, he found only the rifled hall stand and his clothes thrown carelessly about the veranda. The thief must have made his exit only a moment before Mr. Andrew arrived downstairs, for he heard him moving as he descended. The occupants of the house searched the garden but found only foot marks, evidently made by the thief as he escaped.
Mr. Andrew immediately notified the police and city detectives are working on the case.

THRILLING AERIAL TRIP

Pathfinder Returns After Flight in Dense Fog; Made Several Fast Runs.

The aeroplane Pathfinder No. 2, piloted by Harry Brown and accompanied by C. Plant as a passenger returned on Sunday after a ten-days trip to the state of Washington.

Starting for Puyallup on the morning of Oct. 2, the Pathfinder made the distance of 110 miles in the fast time of 95 minutes. The flight from Victoria to Seattle was made in 65 minutes, making a new record for the Victoria-Seattle flight, cutting down the previous time, made by a Boeing seaplane, by four minutes.

After giving flying exhibitions at the fair at Puyallup the machine was detained a few days by the custom authorities on a technicality, which however, was cleared up satisfactorily. The Pathfinder then proceeded to Friday Harbor in the San Juan County, covering the distance of 110 miles in 95 minutes. At Friday Harbor the machine had a busy time.
Two photographic trips and a message-carrying trip to Anacortes for the Elk's Lodge in their Salvation Army drive were made. Several passengers were taken up including two trips of two passengers at a time, this making in all three trips that the passengers have been carried two at a time. The first trip was at the Puyallup fair, when a couple of lovers were taken up.

The return trip from Friday Harbor was made under exciting circumstances. Leaving in a thick mist and rain, the Pathfinder was headed west, but on coming out of the fog the aviators found themselves twenty miles to the north of their course, having made a complete right hand turn in the mist. Picking up their course again, they headed for the mountains of Salt Spring Island which appeared above the fog. Arriving here and again getting their direction the Pathfinder made a bee-line for Victoria at all speed as night was coming on fast.

The aviators made a successful landing at the Willows at 7.10 o'clock on Sunday evening in a driving rain and darkness.

Advocates of print writing in England claim it possesses many advantages over ordinary hand writing, especially to the teacher, in that the same characters being employed for writing and reading, the child learns much more quickly.

Many British educational authorities favor it, and it is taught in numerous schools. No time is wasted in the new system on innumerable joinings. Superfluous loops and flour-ishes are abolished.

Imagine an elderly bachelor in-diting a love letter to a pretty girl, printing it out like an infant. He might as well use a typewriter!

The Marquis of Anglesey was a tion of road work in respect of some of his large land holdings in the Wal-bachin neighborhood. The Marquis intimated that he might be able to assist the Public Works Department in the matter of labor, and he agreed to submit a proposal to Hon. Dr.

King involving the use of labor used in the Walbachin orchards.

ENTERTAIN NO HOPE OF HUNTER'S LIFE

Condition of William Bayliss
Is Most Critical Following
Accident

Little hope is held for the recovery of William Bayliss, aged 19, of 1577
Yale Street, Oak Bay, who fell down a declivity while hunting on Mount Finlayson on Sunday. Bayliss is lying at the Jubilee Hospital at present suffering with a broken back.

With a friend, Frank Webb, of Bowker Avenue, Bayliss started to hunt on Mount Finlayson on Sunday morning. It appears that the two young men separated and Webb, not being able to rejoin his companion began to retrace his steps. Presently he heard groans and found Bayliss at the bottom of a cliff, wedged in between two projecting portions of rock which had prevented him falling further down the side of the mountain. He was conscious but unable to move, and the lower part of his body was paralyzed.

Webb did what he could for his friend and ran down the mountain side to the road. Here he met a motorist who rushed him to Gold-stream, where he telephoned for the Cameron & Caldwell ambulance, and notified the Provincial Police. Webb then returned, and with two Indians, whom he met, tried to get Bayliss down the mountain. The men were unable to make much headway, but shortly afterwards Provincial Constable Owens and about a half dozen companions arrived on the scene. The party, after two hours' work, managed to get Bayliss to the road. He was then placed in the ambulance and rushed to the hospital here.

He was attended by Dr. Ernest Hall, who performed an operation on his back, which was broken.

DEATH OF HEAD OF DIRECTORY FIRM

James Henderson, of Vancouver, Dies in Los Angeles

Word has been received from Los Angeles that the death occurred recently in that city of James Henderson, president of the Henderson Directories, Ltd., which has branches throughout the west and publishes among others the Victoria and Vancouver directories.

The late Mr. Henderson was born in Montreal seventy-three years ago and came west to Winnipeg in the early days when quite a young man.
Like many other Winnipeg pioneers he followed various callings. For a considerable time he was the Government stamp vendor at the Winnipeg post office. He first took hold of the Winnipeg directory and made a success of it, following this up from city to city, until nearly the entire west was covered.

During the last few years the active management of the extensive business has been largely conducted by his sons. After a residence in Winnipeg of over forty-seven years, about sixteen years ago the late Mr.
Henderson decided to settle in Vancouver as he found the mild climate of the coast better for his failing health.

The widow and three sons, Leonard G., J. Selby and Bert, all of Winnipeg, and two married daughters, survive him.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

G. W. V. A. PRESIDENT NOT TO SPEAK HERE FOR T. A. BARNARD

Commanding Officer Will Not Permit Him to Take Part in Election

President Whitaker, of the Provincial Great War Veterans' Association, will not take the platform in this city to support the candidature of Thomas A. Barnard, Labor candidate, against the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, it was announced at noon today.

Mr. Whitaker telegraphed that he was not allowed to come, after he had informed Mr. Barnard that he would be over.

"My officer commanding finds it impossible to grant permission for me to take part in the election campaign, whilst I am still in uniform," he stated. "I trust you will get all the speakers you require."

Efforts are being made to-day by Mr. Barnard to meet the women of Victoria, "with reference to his record on the question of women's emancipation." Leaders of women's political organizations were approached and asked to call a meeting. This they are now considering.

Arrangements are being made to hold a meeting at Oakland's Thursday night at which Mr. Barnard will speak. At yesterday's meeting of the Local Council of Women this much-vexed question again received attention. At the request of the Order of the Macabees and the Daughters of St. George, the Council will take the matter up and if possible arrange for a public mass meeting at which representatives of the business and industrial worlds will be asked to speak.

Mrs. Gordon's Report.

Mrs. J. D. Gordon, director of the Homes Branch of the Soldiers' Settlement Board, and vice-president of the Local Council of Women, addressed the members, giving an interesting account of her work among the families of soldier-settlers throughout the Province. She had been pleased to help and advise in many situations, varying to include matters of instruction, sewing hints, care of dairy utensils and the problems that naturally confront the inexperienced farmer's wife. She was glad to state that the English women and the majority of the soldier-farmers' wives were from the Old Country and to love Canada and were proud to call themselves Canadians. Since her recent appointment, Mrs. Gordon has visited the families of one hundred soldiers, and she is enthusiastic in her work of helping the women to become accustomed to their new and strange environment.

Child Welfare.

Miss Crease and Mrs. Hasell were appointed delegates to attend the exhibit of the Child Welfare Association at Vancouver during the last week of the month, an invitation having been sent to the Council. It is hoped to have the Rev. Hugh Dobson bring the exhibit to Victoria at an early date, this suggestion being one of several valuable proposals dealt with in the report of the health committee, which was submitted by Mrs. Schofield in the absence of the convener, Mrs. MacLachlan. It was hoped that all organizations interested would assist in financing the expenditure involved.

Girls' Club.

Miss Crease reported for the Girls' Club, at 1342 Fort Street, and stated the needs of the house, mentioning as some of the furnishings required, a piano or monthly cash contribution towards its purchase; mirrors, chests of drawers, carpet strips, books and small tables. Anyone desiring to contribute furnishings was asked to send them direct to the matron at the above mentioned address.

Among the correspondence received was a letter from West Saanich Institute enclosing a donation of $3 from the members, in response to R. S. Day's suggestion that each member of the affiliated societies contribute twenty-five cents to the maintenance of the Local Council and Provincial Executive.

THANKSGIVING DAY PASSED QUIETLY

Some of Churches Will Celebrate Next Sunday With Special Service

Thanksgiving Day passed quietly in Victoria with nothing of unusual interest occurring. Advantage was taken of the excellent weather conditions and most people spent a good part of the day out-of-doors. In the evening large crowds attended the theatres, while many quiet little family parties were attended at home.

The high cost of living had a very considerable effect on the day's celebration and the good old Thanksgiving turkey dinners were exceptions rather than the rule. However, despite the drawbacks of present-day living, the feeling of Thanksgiving was general throughout the city, mingled with bright hopes for the future.

Services were held in some of the local churches but in the case of others the celebrations were either held last Sunday or will be held Sunday next.

Y. M. C. Outing.—A small party of Y. M. C. cyclists had a very enjoyable outing to Elk Lake yesterday.

I. O. D. E. Educational Work.—All educational secretaries of the I. O. D. E. primary chapters have been requested to attend a special meeting which is to be held at the headquarters in the Jones Building on Thursday afternoon at 3:30, when matters of considerable importance will be discussed.

Naval Ratings to Meet.—All naval and ex-naval men who have at any time seen service under the White Ensign are requested to attend a meeting which will be held in Room 214, Pemberton Building, at 8 o'clock Thursday night, under the chairmanship of Captain E. H. Martin, C.M.G., R.C.N. The business to be taken up will have to do with the reception to be extended to Viscount Jellicoe.

Meeting of Anglicans.—All members of the Church of England in the city are invited to attend the public meeting to be held to-night in Christ Church Cathedral schoolroom at eight o'clock, when the origin, aims and object of the Anglican Forward Movement will be explained. The Bishop of Columbia, Right Rev. C. D. Schofield, will preside, and an address will be delivered by the Ven. F. C. C. Heathcote, of Vancouver, who has been appointed provincial organizing secretary for the Forward Movement in British Columbia and Alberta. All holding any office in connection with organizations and church committees in the various parishes of the district are especially urged to be present at this meeting, which will mark the active launching of the movement in the city.

Opens $15,000 Mortgage Drive.—First Presbyterian Church inaugurated a five-days' drive yesterday, having for its object the raising of $15,000 to wipe off the mortgage on the church. A committee of sixty members has been organized to make a thorough canvass of the congregation, and the drive commenced in earnest yesterday. Representing the board of managers on the committee are Alex. Stewart, F. C. Patterson, J. Forman and Alex. McKeech; session, Walter Walker, Daniel Smith, J. McLorie and George McGregor. Yesterday's reports proved most encouraging, and the committee is optimistic as to the result of the campaign. Prior to the opening of the canvass, the sum of $2,000 had been subscribed in large and small voluntary contributions.

HON. DR. TOLMIE TO SPEAK TO-NIGHT

The Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, will make his first public platform appearance in his bye-election campaign, when he addresses his Ward Three supporters at 8 o'clock to-night at the Unionist headquarters, in the old Dixie Ross Store, 1317 Government Street. The meeting will be open to all others interested. Other speakers will include Frank Andrews and W. G. Gaunce.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL AT BUSY SESSION

High Cost of Living, Child Welfare Among Many Topics Discussed

The spectre of the High Cost of Living is not to be allowed to languish in Victoria cupboards, for at yesterday's meeting of the Local Council of Women this much-vexed question again received attention. At the request of the Order of the Macabees and the Daughters of St. George, the Council will take the matter up and if possible arrange for a public mass meeting at which representatives of the business and industrial worlds will be asked to speak.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Annual Festival.—The annual festival was held in the public hall, Jordan River, on Thanksgiving eve, commencing at 8:30 o'clock. Bountiful refreshments were provided by the ladies, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Dancing continued until 2:30 a.m., and almost all the adult population was in attendance.

Sale of Work.—The St. Saviour's Ladies' Work Society will hold its Christmas sale of work on December 4.

CHINESE REGISTRATION.

To the Editor:—There appears to be some question as to which of the two opposing candidates' campaign managers is responsible for the Chinese registering. Perhaps I can clear this up. The bulk of those who have registered are those who can read the local press, and who, understanding something of the law of the country, saw their opportunity and went and put their names down on the voters' lists of their own accord. I am responsible for the rest, and personally conducted a number, and showed them where their ward is, and got them to register.

During the last three years it has been painfully brought home to the Chinese, who are able to read the newspapers that they have been made a political football of at every election, be it municipal, provincial or Dominion. That they resent it is only natural. As a rule they do not want to mix up in our politics, but even a worm will turn, and they have been forced to the conclusion that if they want to stop it they must assert their undoubted rights, and get their names on the voters' lists. If anybody is to be blamed for their taking this stand, it is the politicians of all colors, who appear to think that the only way to get votes is to swear at the Chinaman.

As to the story of the corraling of 200 coolies to come forward during the sitting of the Court of Revision, by means of a bulletin in Chinatown, so far as I can find out it exists in the imagination of the person who told it to The Times reporter. There is no foundation to it. There was no bulletin put up, and there were no 200 Chinamen corralled to come forward. What the object is in starting such a yarn one can guess at, and it only raises a feeling of contempt for the depth to which politics have descended that such a fiction should be thought necessary in order to attain any end.

It has been reported that certain ladies, upon learning of the corraling of 200 coolies to come forward before the Court of Revision have been telephoning to the committee rooms of both candidates, saying that they would not come to vote if "Chinks" were allowed to do so. I can hardly credit the story. When the ladies attained the franchise it was expected and hoped that with their finer sense of right and wrong, and their higher and purer ideals, their influence in politics would raise it to a higher plane, and that they would not condone the throwing over of high principles for expediency. If, therefore, any one did phone, I think they must have done so under a misapprehension of the situation, for I do not think they would willingly lend themselves to the doing of an act of injustice. May I, therefore, explain the Chinaman's claim to be on the voters' list?

Some ladies, with whom I have had conversation, think that "British subjects" mean only those of British race, and, therefore, they wonder why the Chinaman, of an alien race, should want to vote. "British subject" under our election laws includes any alien, of any race, so long as he is born in Canada (natural born), or is naturalized, or is otherwise a British subject. If all other aliens who are British subjects are allowed on the voters' list, why not the Chinaman?

A good deal has been said about "a scrap of paper," and some ladies, not thinking they would willingly lend themselves to the doing of an act of injustice, have been telephoning to the Chinaman's being on the voters' list. The scrap of paper referred to is the "Naturalization Certificate" issued to all aliens, including the Chinaman, and reads as follows: "so and so (the name of the person) has become naturalized as a British subject," and "is entitled to all political and other rights, powers and privileges, etc." What are these political rights, powers and privileges if not the right of the franchise, provided the applicant is qualified in other respects? If we deny the franchise to an applicant for no other reason than because of his race, and grant it to all other aliens who are similarly naturalized, then the naturalization paper becomes a "scrap of paper." Would the lady voters condone this or can they reconcile it with their ideas of right and wrong, of justice and of fair play?

It seems to me that the stand against the Chinese British subjects is indefensible, and they should be granted the franchise the same as other aliens. If we do not like the was provided at the studio during the filming of the picture, to accommodate the latest creations of the most famous modistes of New York. Miss Ferguson plays three parts in "The Avalanche" and as each is supposedly rich and extravagant, the gowns and furs, not to speak of the gems, were essential to the proper portrayal of the roles. In one scene, when Miss Ferguson strolls into a fashionable gambling house, she wears a gown, fur wrap, jeweled slippers and other adornments worth approximately $30,000. Her stockings alone cost $300, they being fashioned out of old lace of antique pattern, while the heels of her slippers are resplendent with the glitter of six hundred small diamonds.

Miss Ferguson's gown in this scene as designed by Callot and it is the most expensive style shown to the public in many years. She wears a sleek glossy wig and carries a beautiful feathered fan, while from her wrist dangles a vanity case of jet set with diamonds. Her own pearls, earrings and bracelets are shown for the first time on any screen.
Aside from this, "The Avalanche" is a stirring photoplay which is filled with suspense and thrills and in which, Miss Ferguson appears to great advantage.

NORMA TALMADGE

Screen Star Featured in
"The Way of a Woman."

In "The Way of a Woman," Norma Talmadge's latest Select Picture, in which she is again presented by Joseph M. Schenck, and which was adapted from the famous play "Nancy Lee," by Eugene Walter, the beloved screen star excels even her own high mark in a thrilling story of American life. The scenes of the story are laid on a Southern plantation and in the gayest parts of New York. "The Way of a Woman" is being shown this week at the Dominion Theatre.

Nancy, the eldest daughter of the fine old Lee family of Virginia, finds at the age of twenty-one that her whole life and happiness are being sacrificed to the empty family traditions. She was made to give up Anthony Weir, the man she loves, because her father thinks he is not "good enough." She turns against the family pride which has brought them so little and decides to marry George Trevor, an impossible New York boulevardier, for the material advantages he can bring to her family. In the end, however, Anthony realizes that his love is greater than his doubt, and the romance comes to a happy ending.

VARIETY

The role of a minister's daughter who falls in love with an atheist, who really is the leader of a notorious band of outlaws, is portrayed by beautiful Mildred Harris—Mrs. Charles Chaplin—in Lois Weber's latest six-reel Jewel Production, "When a Girl Loves," which opened the Variety yesterday, is shown again today. This is the first appearance of Mrs. Chaplin in a Western drama, and it gives her an opportunity for pleasing work in an atmosphere different from that of any of her previous features. Reviewers who have seen advanced showings of the picture are lavish in their praise of her acting, some going so far as to call it the best of her career.

The story deals with the reformation of the atheist through the girl's influence and brings to the screen one of the most appealing offerings of the year.

COLUMBIA

In "Mickey," this week's feature at the Columbia, Mabel Normand is as lively as a cluster of hairpins, supple as a rubber band, and as charming as the pretty girl she might rightfully be expected to be. "Shinnying up trees, romping over jagged rocks, rolling down a rugged hillside, running and leaping like a mountain goat from crag to crag, and taking high dives in 'altogether' illusions that any Kellermann might turn her head to envy. Then commences the transition to Mabel Normand the sensational.

Mickey, the Normand character, becomes a Cinderella—with a "kick." She takes the "worst of it" like a swimmer, breasts a billow and comes back at her antagonists with liberal interest. Preyed upon by covetous and distant relatives who believe at first that she is rich only to later conclude that she's poor, Mickey takes matters as they come, and wins the man she loves without much more than half trying.

ROMANO

"The Profiters," the latest of Pathe's Extra Selected Star Photoplays, featuring that wonderful mistress of emotion, Fannie Ward, will be offered by Manager Clark as his feature attraction at the Romano again to-day.

"The Profiters" is a page taken almost exactly from the history of our national life—the woman in it seems but a helpless mite between two giant contending forces—the forces of ruthless ambition as opposed to the forces of right—affording an intimate view of the inner workings of a heartless food trust, and we are shown how a woman's devotion, courage and desperation carried a frail little creature, when driven to bay, safely through the devilish machinations of the sinister system.

"The New Boy," as was predicted, is proving to be one of the most popular and enjoyable attractions that Mr. R. N. People Turned Away Yesterday; Bright Singing and Clever Acts on Bill

People were turned away from the Pantages last night, so great was the demand for admission, and it was the same at all three of the opening performances.

This week's programme is one of the most popular offered for some time and insures a big attendance at all performances.

The opening number is handled by the Lenoras, who present a trapeze act which is full of thrills. Their aerial work is exceedingly good and invariably results in repeated demands for more of the same kind.

One of the most humorous numbers on the bill is the playlet in which Stan and Fae Laurel take the leading roles. The male member of the company enters in the guise of a robber and when he is mistaken for a dentist the fun begins and uproarious laughter is the general thing from that time on.

The Revue de Vogue is a pretentious musical offering in which a number of well-costumed and pretty girls give some good exhibitions of dancing. Splendid instrumental numbers and songs add to the act, which is well staged and produces considerable humor.

Long and Ward offer an artistic turn in which Mr. Ward presents several impersonations.

The Three White Kùhns give a singing and instrumental number in which they render many new and spirited songs.

For clever acrobatic stunts the Three Bartos are about the best that have ever graced the Pantages stage. Their act is a marvel of entertainment.

Every number on the bill is good and well worth seeing.

No one was ever heard of who refused to accept a one dollar bill or a two dollar bill of the Dominion of Canada. It is legal tender and has the backing of the wealth of the whole country behind it. There is another investment with the same guarantee, but better still, for it pays interest as well, which is not the case with the one-dollar bill. This marvellous investment is a Victory Bond.

Backed by the Dominion, easily cashed at any time, accepted as security at any bank and paying a splendid rate of interest—what better investment could you ask for your money? Don't forget it. Victory Loan, 1919.

ITALIAN TENOR

ORPHEUM STAR

Ciccolini, Headline Attraction
in Week-end Vaudeville
Bill

Ciccolini, the amazing young Italian tenor, has finally been launched on promised trans-continental tour and comes to the Royal Victoria on Friday and Saturday with a Saturday matinee, as headline attraction on the Orpheum bill. To the natural and perfected possession of a phenomenal tenor voice Ciccolini brings the added and inestimable glories of youth, manly beauty, emotional intensity, passionate fire and high intelligence. But the sun and crown of his rare endowments is his voice. In sheer beauty, in roundness and flexibility, in pleasant phrasing, in searching tender appeal, in fresh and exuberant flow, the voice of Ciccolini is without a peer among the living tenors of the world. Ciccolini triumphantly sang in the grand opera houses of Europe where he astounded the nobility of music as well as the royalty of thrones.

At the top of the bill also there is Harry Green and a very clever company who present "George Washington Cohen" a playlet written by Aaron Hoffman, the author of "Friendly Enemies" and "Nothing but the Truth." Seldom has a part of a player received so much favorable comment as Mr. Green did for his portrayal of the gentleman who would emulate the principals of veracity founded by the father of our country.

There is no more distinctive comedienne in vaudeville than Lillian Shaw and few acts are more certain to please an audience than does her offering. Her dialect ballads have become classics. She opens her act with a Hebrew character portrayal and song. In this she establishes herself as a comedienne. In cities where Miss Shaw has appeared she is welcomed back and on her first appearance is bound to win the favor of her audiences.

The fellow who said "There is more warmth in a pretty girl's smile than in the sun" must have seen Flo and Ollie Walters, because here are two sunbeams—this despite the fact the sun is always referred to as a male. The Misses Walters are two decidedly attractive girls. The girls are capable singers, dancers, in fact, entertainers in general.

The Pickfords are acrobats, jugglers, illusionists and pantomimists, and more important still, they are showmen. Consequently the four links of the chain that bind them to the public are so ingeniously forged as to afford entertainment of the most interesting and amusing order. A whole bag full of antics is required for the nonsensical nonentities of Ben and Hazel Mann. Here is a pair of funsters who dive headlong into the sea of fun and come up covered with laughter. This laughter is used as a lotion which smooths out wrinkles and makes the world seem a little brighter because of it.

The musical programme which accompanies the pictures and Current Topics of the Canadian press will be of the same high Orpheum standard that Orpheum patrons have been accustomed to hear. The entire bill gives promise of being one of the very best that has made its way to the west this season.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Reopening of the Delphine silver-lead property, and the undertaking of an extensive scheme of development on it will be events of the immediate future, Randolph E. Bruce, of Wilmer, having given a bond on it to parties who promise to start work at once, says the Nelson Daily News.

This old group is situated on Delphine mountain, about a mile and a half from the wagon road, on the north fork of Toby Creek. There are various workings on the property, the principal system consisting of a thirty-foot shaft with a right drift 146 feet long, reaching the surface of an incline raise, and a left drift seventy feet long, a shallow winze being sunk from this level and other drifts carried from the foot of the winze.

The original ore body is stopped out but the character of the formation leads to the conjecture that the vein carries other ore bodies at no great distance. Ore shipped in the old days ran $100 to the ton in silver and lead. The Delphine has been idle for many years.

There is considerable mining activity in the Wilmer district, aside from the properties actually shipping, and work is proceeding steadily on various groups. Various properties in and around Toby Creek that are now being developed are expected to ship ore to Trail the coming winter.

Development work on the Evening Star property on Dayton Creek, near Slocan City, says The Nelson News, is progressing favorably, according to Manager William Moore. The mine buildings are all completed, and the winter supplies are now being packed up to the mine, which is at an altitude of 5,000 feet.

In the workings, the tunnel found the ledge, which is now being followed in the direction which will eventually bring the tunnel under the shaft. A granite dyke, twenty feet in width, materially cut down the rate of progress in the drift, but the face is again in the vein, and the two shifts of hand drillers are again making good progress. The vein is now becoming mineralized, though the values are yet not insignificant.

Mr. Moore has been expecting that

NAVAL BRIGADE HELD BIG CHURCH PARADE

In accordance with religious training which forms part of the movement, the Esquimalt and James Bay subdivisions of the Boys' Naval Brigade held a church parade to Christ Church Cathedral on Sunday morning. One hundred and twenty-five boys, headed by a bugle band, marched from the parade grounds behind the Empress Hotel to the church, where Dean Quanton preached on the appropriate subject of "Enthusiasm." General Sir Arthur Currie attended the service and interested himself a great deal in the Naval Brigade as the boys fell in. Church parades will be a regular feature of the Brigade's activities in the future. Permission has been given to the Navy League to establish a subdivision of Roman Catholic boys. A subdivision will also be formed in Oak Bay soon.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain,
How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sour, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisulphate of Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisulphate of Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

"Anything else, mum?" inquired the ambitious youth politely. "Hair dye, cosmetic, face powder, rheumatic drops, belladonna, mole destroyer—"

The elderly lady dealt at another establishment now.

CANADA MUST CONTINUE HER MARCH OF PROGRESS

Finances Must Be Put on Sound and Stable Basis, Reconstruction Programme Continued

The Canadian who thinks that because the war is at an end, and because we are emancipated from actual war duties, he has no continuing responsibility toward the situation, is wrong. The same necessity that keyed the country to the most stirring national endeavors in her history, that brought her the dignity of a nation and made her name ring through the world still exists. Canadians must realize that it is necessary to put the finances of the Dominion on a stable and sound basis, by liquidating our floating indebtedness, to complete the expenses of demobilization, to furnish the necessary credits for the marketing of our produce, and to carry out our reconstruction programme which will keep steady our industries as far as possible and give employment to our people.

The floating debt of the country must be funded if the job is to be finished and the situation cleaned up.

The way to do it is by buying Victory Bonds.

MICKEY SYNOPSIS

"MICKEY" is a blending of every human emotion. Yet the story, with its comedy, its romance, its pathos and its wonderful thrills and simplicity, is always greatest, especially when it has so many enjoyable things about it. Plain and straightforward as the plot itself is, the element of surprise is ever in view.

"MICKEY" is a lovable, harum-scarum little tomboy, who is always getting into all sorts of scrapes that make you laugh and cry; whether with old Joe in the mountain mining district, or later, with her aunt in the city. From the village setting to the contrasting scenes in the home of "Mickey's" aunt, there is ever an atmosphere of reality, with not a dull moment in all the seven reels.

TOY INDUSTRY GROWS; EXPORT TRADE GAINING

Markets Within British Empire May be Supplied by Canadian Makers of Dolls, Etc.—United Kingdom
Takes Goods This Season.

From The Toronto Globe.

Canada has had an incipient toy industry for several years. Even before it was known that the German toys would be shut out from the markets of the world for a period of years there was a small domestic production of toys of various descriptions that were sold with varying degrees of success in the Canadian market. Viewed as an industry, the toy business was in a small way; it is still being conducted on a comparatively small scale, but lessons have been learned in the interval between 1911 and the present by producers of toys that have had on the whole a beneficial effect on this branch of manufacturing. The Dominion has been a fairly liberal importer of foreign toys. Before the war a large share came from Germany; since 1914 the lion's share of the business in the Canadian market has been taken by United States producers of toys. Japan has come into the field as a maker of cheap toys that may be regarded as competitors of the German product, in that they are mostly low priced.

Between 1914 and 1916 there was a scrambling on the part of many persons to enter upon the manufacture of toys in Canada. Many companies were organized in a short space of time. In common with many industries of rapid growth there was disillusionment for many of the early competitors. There were a number of business casualties, and the companies least fitted for carrying on operations were gradually eliminated. The Canadian trade has had some unpleasant experiences in connection with purchases of domestic toys. Incidentally some of the products were of fairly good quality, and at the present time there are good prospects of permanence and expansion. The 1919 season will undoubtedly see a greater value of Canadian toys sold than any previous year. The demand for certain lines has been greater than the supply. In addition successful attempts have been made to introduce dolls, wooden and cast iron toys on the British market.

Britain Now a Customer.

One might look in vain through detailed statements of Canadian trade to find records of toys exported from Canada. The amount has been almost negligible prior to this year. Sales have been made within the last few months in the United Kingdom through Canadian representatives who investigated the British market. It was found that there were good prospects of introducing Canadian toys. Some orders were booked running from $50,000 to perhaps $75,000, which it is anticipated will be the beginning of a larger trade in these commodities.

Dolls have been made in larger quantities during the past two years. In 1918 a production of one million was reached by one Canadian company, and these were disposed of without difficulty. Labor problems may prevent the output for 1919 reaching the same level. There is a demand, however, that is likely to exceed the supply available for the domestic trade, since the number that has gone for export will diminish the quantity left for home consumption. In the British market it was found that French and Japanese dolls and toys of other kinds had been introduced extensively. The outlook as regards German toys is apparently not clearly defined yet. There is considerable sentiment against the reintroduction of the German product in the British Empire, but manufacturers candidly admit that they would not be delighted to learn that shipments had actually been made. If any when the German toy does come back, it is not thought that the Hun products will take as prominent a place as before. Other countries have learned much about toy-making; Canada itself has had lessons in the conduct of the toy industry that have been fairly profitable, at least from a standpoint of experience to the companies that are still engaged in the business.

Various Departments of Industry.

If there is any sort of toy that can be made profitably in Canada it is the wooden plaything. Canada has been the prodigious waster of wood. Much of the mill waste could be used to advantage for small wooden products. A number of lines of articles such as blocks, wood-turning products, cars and cars, for the amusement of the small folk, are being made in Ontario with fair success. There is every prospect that toys of this description may find an export market.

Cast iron toys, such as miniature railroad cars, carts, etc., are being made quite successfully in Eastern Ontario. This proposition is being carried on in conjunction with the manufacturers of larger cast iron products, so that the toy plant takes the surplus of the foundry production. A beginning has been made in the production of metal toys, and the market may be broadened considerably.

Manufacture of dolls has been undertaken with some success. One of the foremost problems was in connection with dolls' heads. There were no deposits of bisque clay suitable for the production of heads of this material, so far as is known in the industry. A composition head is made that is claimed to be more durable than bisque, and quite as satisfactory in other ways. Two types of composition heads are made. Several hundreds of thousands of these have been introduced to Canadian children, and the same process is now being undertaken in the British Isles. After spending three months in the British market, a Canadian manufacturer and distributor decided that a fair field was offered there for toys bearing a "made-in-Canada" trade mark. The trade there is more than willing to buy Canadian products if price and quality are in line with their expectations. Dolls sell at higher prices in the United Kingdom than on this side of the Atlantic.

British companies are capable of making a good doll, but the tendency of the industry there is to turn out a hand-made article that costs too much for the ordinary buyer. The business transacted this year is somewhat of a trial, which if satisfactory will lead to a permanent trade connection being established. Mechanical toys are being exported from the United Kingdom to Canada. This mutual exchange makes it apparent that Canada and England can supply each other with different sorts of toys to the exclusion of some of the products of alien countries.

So far as export from Canada to New Zealand and Australia is concerned, some of the manufacturers believe that there is a genuine chance to develop trade in toys in that direction. New Zealand especially is looked upon as a good market, since a preferential tariff gives Canadian manufacturers an advantage, which is lacking in the case of Australia. Manufacturers' agents from the latter country have visited Toronto recently, offering to represent Canadian companies.

Trials of Toy Making.

The toy business has rather distinctive features. It is a seasonal industry, since the active period of selling is confined to a comparatively short part of the year. This makes it necessary to carry stocks for some time. The Canadian market is a limited one, and for that reason the units of production cannot be as large as they are for wider markets. The development of a steady export business within the Empire will, however, enable the producers to dispose of a portion of their output, and eventually to enlarge the capacity and to cut down overhead costs, after having come through a very trying period, during which prices of raw materials advanced on short notice. In the case of materials needed for the manufacture of goods already sold, a steep price advance works a real hardship for the manufacturer. This occurred repeatedly in the toy industry and there were some losses incurred. In manufacturing of this sort, it is impracticable to carry raw material sufficient to last for a whole year, but unless this was done the company was liable to incur a disability.

Since orders for the season are placed early in the spring, prices have to be quoted several months before deliveries are made, and costs quite often are changed materially through the payment of higher wages or increases in prices of raw materials. Having passed through the initial stages and having accumulated considerable experience—some of it costly—the toy industry appears now to be on a stable basis and in line for healthy growth. There is doubt in the minds of some persons connected with the industry whether quite an amount of capital has not been wasted that might have been more judiciously employed. There was some misdirection; this has been candidly admitted. There remains the fact that toys can be profitably made in Canada; that workmen adapt themselves to the requirements of the industry, and that goods of sufficient quality are produced to satisfy discerning buyers.

Appearance and Cost.

The toy industry has been rather aptly described by one business man as being a line of manufacture where "an article has to be made that looks to be worth $5 and which actually sells for one-fifth that price. If the manufacturers succeed in doing this—and successful competition both at home and in the United Kingdom would seem to indicate that it is being accomplished—there is every ground for assurance about the future.

Imports of toys indicate the size of the Canadian market. The value of imports in the fiscal year 1914 was $1,037,155, of which Germany supplied toys valued at $579,547. The total imports for 1915 were $785,995, of which Germany's share was $247,044. In 1916 the record of imports was still lower, at $642,190. From that point there was a substantial increase. The United States made rapid strides as a producer and exporter of toys. Imports into Canada from that source were comparatively negligible before 1914. In the fiscal year 1917 United States imports to Canada were valued at $621,504; in 1918, $785,995, and in 1919, $708,459. Japan also gained ground considerably in British, Australian, New Zealand, American and Canadian markets. Importations of Japanese toys into Canada were given a valuation of $179,465 in the fiscal year ending March, 1917; $224,095 in 1918, and $228,741 in 1919.

Canadian imports of toys from all sources in the fiscal year ending March, 1919, were valued at $912,137.

COLLISHAW BAGGING BOLSHEVIK PLANES

Famous Canadian Ace Writes of Experiences on Russian Front

The war in general may be over, and romance a thing of song and story for most Canadians. But Col. Raymond Collishaw, D. S. O., D. S. C., D. F. C., is leading a little band of Canadians on high adventure, of which he tells in the following letter to Captain Joseph Clark, D. F. C., of Toronto.

Col. Collishaw is born to adventure and in addition to winning six decorations in the Air Force in the late war, shooting down sixty-three Hun aircraft, he was a member of the official Arctic expedition with a mere boy. Here we find him in command of a squadron of Canadian aviators fighting the Bolsheviks in South Russia.

The letter says: "Well, here we are away out in a funny country miles from anywhere. We have been here about two months and say, boy! some two months! "Certainly it has been extremely exciting and amusing and things that have happened and are happening are astounding to one not accustomed to local events and local color. "Our squadron is at K—, about three miles north of the Crimea peninsula.

"Everyone in this country lives in railway trains, so our show lives on trains, too, roads anywhere being impossible. Naturally any fighting takes place around the railway lines. "Usually two armoured trains approach each other and have a pitched battle.

"They go in for armoured cars here in great style and they also have a few tanks with Russian crews.

Only British Unit. "Our squadron is the only British unit on this front and we are having some session. During the offensive operations by General Denikin's volunteer army my pilots were 'full out' and most of the credit has been given to our squadron for the 'ground strafing' and bombing shows we entertained them with. Again at T— our fellows showed them a few tricks and all our pilots were praised for their efforts against the Bolsheviks. Since arriving, they have given our fellows twenty-four decorations.

"Yesterday I shot down the first machine ever destroyed on this front. It was a German pilot in a D5 Albatross. He fell near K— on the Volga River.

A few days ago we were out on a show attacking Black Sea cavalry (Bolshevik) and one of my chaps named Elliott, flying at 500 feet was shot down about six miles over the lines. Neither he nor his observer were hurt. The observer kept the Red cavalry off with his Lewis gun until the pilot set the machine on fire. Then still towing the Lewis gun, the two started away, keeping the Red cavalry at a respectful distance.

"Captain Anderson another Canadian, landed nearly amid all the enemy cavalry, he and his observer scattering them with their machine guns.

"Elliott and his observer then set off to join the second pair, clearing the way with their Lewis. The Bolsheviks immediately surrounded the burning machine just as six Copper bombs went off in it.

In the meantime a Bolshevik bullet had punctured the gas tank of the rescue machine. So the observer climbed out on a wing and held both holes on each side with his thumbs. Elliott and his observer then got into the machine, and got home safely.

"That was some stuff and must have shaken the Bolshevik. But all my boys are some stuff.

"We have sixty-two flying officers, fifty-three of whom are Canadians. Three flights of single seater scouts and three flights of big two-seater bombers of the best pattern. I am in charge of my own operations. The volunteer army have a couple of flights. I frequently machines from both sides land on enemy territory to exchange ideas.

"In the areas where there are no railways the opposing armies seem to fraternize. The volunteer army is clothed entirely in khaki with British G.S. buttons, equipped in fact, with everything British except ideas.

Largely Cossack. "The personnel of the volunteer army is largely Cossack, with a sprinkling of refugee Russian officers, who are really fine fellows. In this country everyone is fighting everyone else. Little armies all over the place, the main three being Denikin's in South Russia; Kolchak's in East Russia, and Gregoroff's in the vicinity of Odessa. Gregoroff used to be a Bolshevik colonel and has changed his ideas three times already. Now he is fighting the Bolsheviks, but he is not with General Denikin. Outfits known as the Green Guards also abound. They are simply bands of outlaws and belong to no side. One's life is worth about a dollar in this country.

"The Bolsheviks have no officers, merely civilians directing the different parties. There are no laws or regulations. The Russians actually drink petrol! So one can imagine what happens when they get 'well lit up.' "The money of the country is marvellous. They just go down cellar and make it while you await change. Captured Bolshevik money is perfectly good legal tender. No one even pays fares in the railways. The whole nation just travels around on trains, while the army cheerfully runs the railroad and manufactures the paper money to run it as they need it.

"But they know how to have a good time. They have beautiful orchestras in band stands all over the country, and some of the finest food I have ever tasted I had here.

"I have seen plenty of atrocious things you have read of and I can vouch for their truth. The Bolshevik line up the civilians in hundreds shoot and then mutilate them brutally. Another pretty little trick the Bolsheviks play is to strap a basin against a man's stomach with a rat imprisoned in the basin. The rat eats its way out. Oh, they are nice little chaps! They have dropped pamphlets at different points telling what they are going to do to any British aviators they capture. Cruelty is one of our threatened fates. But we are not worrying.

"There being no telegraph system we have to carry messages everywhere. A forced landing means isolation, as there is no means of getting from one place to another. Some of our boys have been missing for as long as three weeks."

ORIGIN OF INDIAN BASKET GIFT TO PRINCESS MARY

One of the many pleasing incidents marking the recent visit to Victoria of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was the presentation by the Provincial Government of a collection of Indian baskets representative of the handicraft of the natives of British Columbia. It is to Her Royal Highness the Princess Mary, and while not large, contains first-class specimens of the work of the best known tribes of this Province.

Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines, was charged with supervision of the work of assembling the collection. He obtained the services of Dr. C. F. Newcombe, recognized as one of the leading anthropologists of America. Dr. Newcombe did not have long to get the baskets together but succeeded with the assistance of a number of British Columbia collectors, in having them ready in time for presentation during the visit of the Prince of Wales. He obtained two specimens from his own collection, two were contributed by the Government, and the following are responsible for the remainder: Mrs. Homer, Miss Corbould and Mrs. J. W. Creighton, of New Westminster, B.C., and Mrs. Dr. Nash, of Victoria.

A detailed description of the baskets is appended.

Pack Basket—Chilcotin. The foundation is made of split roots of the spruce tree made into a long coil which is bound together by stitches also of fine spruce roots. The ornamentation is wholly on the outer surface and is generally known as the "imbricated" form. This style is only found in a limited area, ranging from the Chilcotin country in British Columbia to the Columbia River in the State of Washington. The highest stems of a wild grass (Phragmites communis, reed grass) and the brown figures are made of strips of the bark of the wild cherry tree. Designs—The principal figures are of caribou and arrow points.

The upper part of the basket is split quills of the wild goose and a little below it is a strengthening rib of wire, a vast quantity of which was taken into the Chilcotin district more than fifty years ago when it was proposed to connect the American continent with Europe by a trans-Siberian telegraph line. This line was suddenly abandoned when the transatlantic cable proved a success. Use—Baskets such as these are used by horse Indians when travelling from place to place and are lashed to the saddle.

From the Chilcotin Indians of British Columbia who belong to the Dene or Athabaskan stock.

Pack Basket. Of twined spruce root. Design—In straw and cherry bark. Top—Mountain sheep, geese and deer in colored cherry bark on a ground of reed grass.

Storage Basket—Salishan. The foundation is made of split pieces of sapling cedar trees, bound together by finely split roots of the same tree.

The ornamental part of imbricated stitches is of two materials. The light ground is of a wild grass and the colored part is of wild cherry bark of two shades of brown.

Use—A storage basket mainly. When travelling the owners fasten the contents in place with cross lashings and wrappings of mats or blankets.

From the Lillooet Indians of Harrison Lake, B.C., who belong to the Salishan stock.

Work Basket. The foundation and stitching are both of split cedar roots formed into a long coil. Like the last the imbricated wrapping is made from wild grass and cherry bark of two shades

Making a purely vegetable Medicine

1875—1919

In 1875, Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., gathered and dried the roots and herbs which she used in the now famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, from the fields and forests, then steeped them on her kitchen stove and filled a few bottles at a time, to alleviate the suffering of her women friends, neighbors and acquaintances, and the success of this medicine was unparalleled.

After 44 Years

These illustrations show the present method by which vast quantities of this well-known remedy are produced and from exactly the same kind of roots and herbs used by Mrs. Pinkham in the beginning.

First—The various herbs used are of the finest quality, and gathered at the time their medicinal strength is the highest.

Second—After the herbs are properly ground and mixed, the medicinal properties are extracted by soaking in large stone jars, covered.

Third—Then the extract is drained through percolators, acting somewhat like a coffee percolator.

Fourth—To insure a thoroughly pure medicine, it is carefully pasteurized by heat in special apparatus, and bottled hot.

Throughout the entire process, from the crude herb to the finished medicine in bottle, cleanliness and exactness are the watch-words.

The Reliability of Testimonials Guaranteed

The testimonials published by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company come to them unsolicited. Never knowingly have they published an untruthful letter, never is a letter published without the written consent of the writer. The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and illness. It is easy to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; and their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

of brown. The design is known as the "Lakes and Rivers" Use—A storage basket for small domestic articles. The pattern on the lid is the "Snake's Skin." Collected about forty years ago by Mrs. Homer, of New Westminster. Probably from near Yale, B.C.

Work Basket. In general resembles No. 3, except that instead of being the commencement of a coil of split roots of the bottom is formed of an oblong made of split sapling. The design in dark strips of cherry bark on a light ground of grass is said to represent the racks set up near fishing grounds on which to dry fish.

Use—Like the last, a woman's storage basket for small articles. From a Salishan tribe of the Lower Fraser River, B.C.

Collected about thirty years ago by Miss Corbould, of New Westminster, B.C.

Berry Basket—Haida. Wholly of split roots of the spruce tree. The foundation radiates from the centre of the bottom and is concealed by the horizontal stitches which are twined round the radii. Such baskets are often watertight after a preliminary soaking. The northern Indians make hats of the same material and in the same manner. Used for collecting berries and for the storage of articles of domestic use.

Trinket Basket—Nootkan. The foundation of this finely woven basket is made from very narrow strips of cedar bark. The bottom is covered with a twined wrapping of threads of club-rush and the top and the sides with split strands of a sea grass (bleached in the sun), which grows in rock pools and is collected at low tide. Use—For storing small trinkets.

From the Clayoquot tribe of the Nootkan stock, who live on the West Coast of Vancouver Island. Cup and Saucer Basket—Salishan. Of coiled cedar root, single strand openwork rim. Design—On saucer, "Caterpillar." On cup, "Flower and Star." Spences Bridge, B.C.

"Zam-Buk made it well"

Children never forget a remedy that ends their pain. That's why a child who has once had Zam-Buk applied to an injury will cry for it again when hurt.

Mrs. T. Fothergill of Ridge Farm, Bousman River, Man., says: "My children are constantly getting cut, bruised or burned and for these injuries I find Zam-Buk indispensable. The little ones even cry for it. For fifteen years we have used Zam-Buk in our family, and could not do without it."

Mothers should always keep a box of Zam-Buk handy on the medicine shelf, for not only does it quickly end pain and soreness, but it positively prevents festering and blood-poisoning and heals in the shortest time possible. Mothers can save themselves much anxiety and often much needless expense by immediately applying

Zam-Buk to cuts, scratches, bruises, bumps, burns and scalds, and by teaching the children that the prompt use of Zam-Buk will prevent little hurts from growing into big ones. Zam-Buk is equally good for sores, rashes, eczema, ulcers, boils, pimples, ringworm and salt rheum. Because of its absolutely herbal composition Zam-Buk cannot become rancid, but will keep indefinitely and still retain its purity and strength. Buy a box to-day, use what you require, put the remainder away, and when next you need it, it will be just as effective as when first bought. That is why Zam-Buk is always the choice of the thrifty house-keeper. All dealers 50c. box.

WOUNDED VETERAN IS WINNER OF MARATHON

St. Catharines, Ont., Sept. 14.—Eddie Lawrence, of the Canadian Pacific Railway A. A. A., Montreal, won the fourteenth Marathon road race here yesterday afternoon, a distance of ten miles.

Only once after the second mile was he headed, at the fourth mile, Stuart Allen, the St. Catharines record holder of 52:44, who has not raced for two years, who was paced for the whole distance, led him for a quarter of a mile, but without lengthening his pace, Lawrence shook him off and Allan was obliged to fall back. He was then passed by James Dellow, Gladstone A. C., Toronto.

Lawrence presented the most perfect running performance of any man in action since the race was inaugurated in 1904, and gave little

LOOKING THINGS OVER

Want Amateur Cards.
W. H. Spalding, of Victoria, as secretary of the B. C. branch of the Amateur Athletic Union has received a letter from the Dominion secretary which states on what conditions the western provinces are allowed to re-instate amateurs who have been guilty of violating amateur rules. As there are several sportsmen in Victoria who have been waiting for a year or two for the Dominion body to show signs of life, and now that the power has at last been placed with the provincial bodies expect that action which will allow them to get back into sport again the letters will be read with interest. The reinstatement of seven sportsmen was recommended at Monday's meeting of the local boards.

Not Everything.
Even the new power which the A. A. U. has granted to the provincial boards has not gone far in creating perfect harmony in the West, and there are still a lot of sportsmen who talk of a separation from the main body. Western teams seldom travel east of the Great Lakes in search of competition, so that what attitude the governing body took would not be of overwhelming importance. There are still a lot of old rulings regarding sport which have been on the books for years which could stand a lot of revision. Among them is one that local men have frequently declared should be abolished, viz., that a professional in one line of sport is a professional in all lines as far as being eliminated from the other sports is concerned. Although a professional baseball player may be hardly able to catch a place in a football team or any other winter sport he is still shut out of sport as soon as the diamond game closes down.

Graduation.
Another decision which will cause a lot of wonder is that a reinstated amateur must promise never again to enter the professional ranks for the remainder of his life. While the ruling that amateurs and professionals cannot mix there is a limit placed on a man's efficiency. Should a man outclass his team mates in a certain branch of sport it is his natural ambition to get among the first class company. It is a worthy ambition and worth striving for to be able to travel in the best class there is and keep in place. There are few sportsmen who are contented to stay in a class in which they are outstanding, and the professional class is often the only class to give them full scope.

evidence of the fact that he had been shot through the body in France.

VICTORIA NORTHWEST WORLD

Champions and Westminster Tied On Post Season Series

Foundation Stickhandlers Beat Salmonbellies Seven to Six in Spectacular Battle Which Closed Lacrosse Season

The big sport feature of Thanksgiving Day was favored with ideal Victoria weather, and a great crowd of enthusiasts gathered at Royal Athletic Park to see the wind up of the Pacific Coast lacrosse season for 1919. They were rewarded by one of the finest exhibitions of the national game. There was not a dull moment at any stage of the play, both teams traveling at top speed all the way and continually pulling off sensational stunts that had the fans on their feet cheering wildly.

Tied the Series
New Westminster, always favorites on the local lacrosse field, came in for a great deal of the noise; but the champions of the world were just a little bit better all round in yesterday's game, nosing the red shirts out by one goal.

Score 7-6
While in the play the Foundations were easily the better team, the ball being in the Salmonbellies' territory the greater part of the time. It is not too much to state that Stoddart, custodian of the nets for the Royal City aggregation, saved his team from leaving Victoria with a big score against it. Time and time again as the hot ones were shot at him from every angle he managed to get in their way, stopping them with his body when he was unable to use his stick to advantage. The Westminster defence, too, bunched closely about him whenever the goal was threatened, and the locals found it difficult at all times to bore in. Painter was the bright particular star, who frequently succeeded in getting by. Taking all kinds of chances, he never overlooked any, and while he had luck with a number of his shots, he managed to find the net for four of the seven goals netted by the locals. That back hand shot which he used for the first time yesterday promises to be a hard one for the goalies next year. Joe was well supported at all times by Feedham, Mitchell, Baker and McGregor; in fact it was a real day for the home players, nobody else figuring in the scoring, although Johnson and McDougall worked hard to get on the tally list. Feedham and McGregor registering the other three goals between them. Mitchell came mighty close to getting a counter, the white-tie blowing between the moment he shot and the time the ball landed in the net.

The Defence Busy
While the home was doing such effective work in the enemy's territory, the defence had opportunities to show class on a number of occasions. The Salmonbellies while the greater part of the time on the defence, there were times when their onslaught on the Foundation nets looked like disaster. Kroeger and Clegg were there, playing the steady, reliable game for which they are noted. Joe Dakers, substituting for Sweeney, who was ill, was a tower of strength at cover point, holding Gunn's scorcher. Storme, the brilliant player of the Royal City team, who generally scores several times during a game, was so effectively checked by Bob McKay that he never got anywhere near scoring. The Foundation goalie, Jake Davis, when the ball did come his way, generally managed to clear, and fending his position hard at all times was a big factor in holding down the boys from the Salmon City.

Warrior the Champs
For the visitors, Feeney, Fallis and Oddy were the goal getters, and gave the champions considerable worry. According to the score, it was a very close game. The post season series is over, with nobody hurt. These games were arranged partly in the interests of next year's lacrosse, partly to give the provincial fair at New Westminster an attraction. The total goals for the four games are equal, with no advantage to either side, but the Victoria Foundation team managed to win when wins counted and they held the championship of the world for both ten and twelve-men lacrosse.

Yesterday's game was in charge of C. E. Burnett, and was free from rough play at all times, only one penalty being handed out.

First quarter: 1, Foundation, Painter, 30 seconds; 2, Foundation, McGregor, 1 minute 30 seconds; 3, New Westminster, Fallis, 9 minutes; 4, New Westminster, Oddy, 50 seconds; 5, Foundation Painter, 5 minutes 30 seconds; 6, Foundation, McGregor, 9 minutes.

It certainly is exasperating to soil the cuff of a perfectly fresh shirt when attending to the furnace.

If you don't change it, you'll feel uncomfortable all day fearing some one will notice the soiled cuff.

Unless you are lucky and are wearing a W. G. & R. shirt with Double Wear Cuffs. Then, all you have to do is to turn the cuff and it's as good as new.

These new Double Wear Cuffs are a convenience men have longed for. Now that they have been invented, men are taking to them enthusiastically.

Double Wear Cuffs look equally dandy and lie perfectly flat either side out. A clever new idea in cuff designing makes this possible. Ask your dealer to show you.

BASKETBALL AND RUGBY ON JAMES BAY PROGRAMME

Inter-city Games With Vancouver Rowing Club Looked For

Rugby and basketball players of the James Bay Athletic Association are planning for an active winter and meeting will be called shortly to get players in both branches lined up for winter competition. F. Hunter is endeavoring to enroll all the basketball players previous to calling practices at the gymnasium. The Rugby players of the J. B. A. A. will hold a big organization meeting in the club rooms at 8 p. m., Wednesday.

A captain, vice-captain and committee for the selection of the team to represent the club in the various games played will be appointed. Many of the former members and players of the club have signified their intention of entering the game again, and the club expects to be represented by a strong team.

It is possible that home and home games will be played against a team from the Vancouver Rowing Club and as keen rivalry exists between the two clubs in rowing there is sure to be a lot of interest taken in the meeting of the two clubs on the football field.

It is proposed to hold scrum practices in the gymnasium at the club, which is well adapted for the purpose. In this way the forwards can get in a lot of useful practice.

A full turnout of players and members is requested at the meeting next Wednesday evening.

The present committee composed of R. McInnes, W. B. Monteith, and R. D. Travis will be pleased to give any players full information on the doings of the club, and any players who have not yet handed in their names are asked to do so at once.

SEVEN APPLICANTS FOR AMATEUR CARDS

As a result of the deliberations of the local body of the British Columbia branch of the Amateur Athletic Union a recommendation was made that a meeting of the Provincial branch be called as soon as possible to deal with the re-instatement of professionals.

Seven applications were before the meeting and in each case a recommendation was made that the applicants be granted their amateur cards. The applications are the first to be dealt with since the power of granting cards was vested in the western provincial bodies by the Amateur Athletic Union.

The sportsmen who applied for re-instatement were Ed. Brynjolfsson and Boss Johnson, professional lacrosse men anxious to get into the amateur rugby game. Dal Thomas, an old country professional rugby man desirous of playing with the amateurs. Billy Hill, Scotty McKay, Al Davies and W. H. Davies, ring men who have been judged guilty of a breach of the amateur rules.

The following were present at the meeting: President A. C. Hill, Secretary Harry Boyd (also representing the Victoria Rugby Football Union), Joe Dakers (North Wards), Boba McInnes (Lacrosse), J. Briggs (Victoria and District Football Association), H. Bird (Yarrows), F. Hopkins (Foundation), Frank Gloriosa, M. P. P. (V. I. A. A.), Geo. I. Warren (Victoria Boxing Club), J. Dilworth (Victoria Baseball League) and Dan O'Sullivan (J. B. A. A.).

BANTAMWEIGHT CHAMP WAS AN EASY WINNER

Newark, N. J., Oct. 14.—Pete Herman, world's bantamweight champion, had little trouble in outpointing Harold Faresse, of Newark, in an eight-round bout here last night. In the three other eight-round contests, Will C. Jackson, of New York, defeated Tommy Touchette, of Paterson, N. J.; Benny Valger, of New York, won from Frankie Brown, of New York; and Charley Weinert, of Newark, easily outpointed Al Roberts, of Staten Island.

UP-ISLAND SOCCER.

Cumberland, Oct. 14.—Cumberland defeated Nanaimo in what was to them the crucial game in the Upper Island Football League here on Sunday afternoon by a score of 2-0. During the first half, playing down hill, Nanaimo had almost the better of the game, but by a more accident Cumberland scored the only goal of the period which was donated by a Nanaimo player bunting the ball through his own goal.

VICTORIA WEST TOOK FIVE-A-SIDE SOCCER

In Hard Battle With K. of C. Team in Final Round

After a hard battle with the K. of C. Five in the final, the Victoria Wests quintette carried off the five-a-side soccer cup and medals at the Thanksgiving tournament at Royal Athletic Park. Favored with fine weather and with the added attraction of the Foundation band there was a large crowd and three and a half hours snappy soccer was keenly appreciated.

Eight teams made a bid for the trophy and ten minutes each way with a change of ends at half time but no interval was played. In the first round Foundation beat Yarrows, the score being three goals to two.

The K. of C. Hut won from the Army and Navy Veterans by default. The Wests beat the Comrades B team by two goals to nothing.

The Comrades A team beat the Cricketers by four goals to one. The Harbor Marines had a bye.

In the play-off of the bye the K. of C. Hut beat the Harbor Marine by four goals to one.

In the second round the Wests beat the Comrades A team by three goals to two.

The K. of C. team beat the Foundation one goal to nil.

After a ten minutes interval the K. of C. team were again in the field against the Wests and lost two goals to one after a plucky bid for honors.

H. H. Brown presented gold medals to the following members of the winning team at the close of the tournament, Youson, Peden, Mulcahy, Jackson and Mackay.

With four points awarded for a goal and one for a corner, although four corners was not rated as the equal of one goal, the score by points was as follows:

First Round.

Foundation, 14 points.
Yarrows, 10 points.
K. of C. awarded game, A. and N. not turning out.

Wests, 10 points.
Comrades B, 1 point.
Cricketers, 4 points.
Comrades A, 17 points.
Harbor Marine, a bye.

Result of Bye.

K. of C., 20 points.
Harbor Marine, 4 points.

Second Round.

Wests, 12 points.
Comrades, 8 points.
K. of C., 5 points.

K. of C., 1 point.

A. and N. Soccer.

All playing members and members of the Army and Navy Veterans Soccer Club interested are asked to meet in the secretary's office, 216 Pemberton Building, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

J. P. Cronin, formerly a half-back of the Navy team, has been signed up by the A. and N. Club.

CLOTHES HIDDEN SPENT THE HOLIDAY IN BED

Frank Sweeney, one of the lacrosse handlers who helped the Foundation dozen win the coast series and then run away with the world's ten man side championship at Winnipeg, was denied the satisfaction of taking part in the exciting battle with New Westminster, Thanksgiving Day, which marked the close of the lacrosse season. Frank, or Roscoe Arbuckle the Second, to give the title which has stuck since the Winnipeg fans wish it on him, was billed for rugby, soccer and lacrosse during the week-end, and in spite of an attack of lagrippe, swore that he was determined to get into one game during the holiday. Frank's protestations reached the ears of the doctor in attendance and as a result he was the victim of an effective frame-up. While he slumbered all clothing was removed from his room and instead of helping the Foundation beat the New Westminster dozen he was forced to spend the day between the blankets singing the praises of the arch plotters.

TWO JACKS' BILLIARDS.

In the Two Jacks' billiard tournament last night a very close game was seen between Hall (r50) and Anderson (r50), the former winning after a hard-fought struggle by 23 points. Hall is thus the first man to get into the money.

In the draw for the first round of the billiard league, teams captained by Hiberson and Frost were drawn to play each other in A division, and in B division those captained by Hindle and Robinson. These teams will play on Thursday evening at 7.30.

OPENING CEREMONY OF GOLF CLUBHOUSE

President Predicts Unprecedented Popularity for United Service Club

Although the opening day for the new club house at the United Service Golf Club at Esquimalt was somewhat marred by rain, there was a good crowd on hand to celebrate the auspicious occasion and a large number of golf enthusiasts played throughout the afternoon, despite the downpour. Eight foursomes were arranged, partners being drawn for, and competition was keen. Some excellent play was seen, the scores being generally low considering the handicap imposed by the temporary greens. After a close match Mrs. Willis and Mr. Trostevn proved the winners with a score of 72.

With the removal to the larger and more commodious quarters, club members will find many improvements and additional facilities conducive to the comfort of players. A new caterer has been engaged and on Sunday he commenced his regime with the serving of an excellent luncheon. Luncheon will be served every Sunday in future and other meals can be arranged—an innovation which should prove popular with club members and habitues of the course.

The officers of the Club hope that with the advent of the new conditions the Club will regain the popularity it enjoyed before the war took away so many of its members. Reginald N. Hincks, the new president, is enthusiastic on the subject of the Club's possibilities and predicts for it a future of unprecedented popularity. The greens which have been undergoing repair will shortly be re-opened, the recent rain having brought them into good condition, and when the plans for the making of additional bunkers has been consummated, the United Service course should prove one of the sportiest in Victoria.

CLARKE BEAT MOORE

Nanaimo, Oct. 14.—At Cumberland Friday night Sergt. Jimmy Clarke, of Vancouver, defeated Tommy Moore, of Nanaimo, in the tenth round of a scheduled 15-round bout. Moore's seconds threw the sponge in the ring to save the man from punishment. Moore had a shade in the first three rounds, after which the fight was Clarke's all the way.

YARROWS REGISTER ANOTHER SOCCER WIN

Three Leading Soccer Clubs All Got Points in Saturday's Games

Yarrows 5, Fragments 2.
Wests 2, Harbor Marine 0.
Foundation 2, Comrades 0.
North Wards 2, Army and Navy Veterans 0.
G.W.V.A. 2, K. of C. Hut, 1.
Yarrows for the first time since they have been organized as a soccer eleven lowered the colors of the Fragments from France in the league race Saturday. The shipbuilders who have started off with a big noise this season improved their position as leaders of the competition by defeating the returned men by five goals to two. Foundation and the G. W. V. A. tied with Yarrows on points maintained their positions, each registering another win.

Good weather favored the soccer men and the grounds were in better condition than they have been for some time past. There were good crowds at most of the games and the creditable brand of soccer promised at the beginning of the season was in most cases supplied.

The Knights of Columbus and the Great War Veterans clashed at the North Ward Park before a large crowd of spectators. The K. of Cs. were greatly strengthened by the inclusion of Jimmy Allan and Al McKinnon. The Vets played the same team that defeated the Fragments last week. The Vets kicked off and for quite a spell midfield play was the order, then the Vets settled down to their usual game, but Breadner and Sherman, the K. Cs. backs, cleared in great style. Back came the Vets, their combination carrying them through all opposition, and Vic Bartholomew with a great shot struck the upright and from the rebound Ackroyd missed scoring by inches only. From the goal kick the K. Cs. got the ball on the run and McKinnon playing nice football got his wing man going, but he finished up weak. McKinnon was again to the fore, feeding his men grandly, but to no avail, for Allen and Kroeger, the Vets' back, were playing finely, leaving Penderay with nothing to do. Kerr took up the running and McKinnon had a grand goal for the Vets. Stephens, having no chance at all. Beautiful combination by the Vets left the K. Cs. helpless. Allan was left guessing against the close passing of the Vets. The halves, Ackroyd, Forrest and Robbins, had the K. Cs. forwards beaten all the time, and were always on the lookout to see that their own forwards were given every chance to shine by passes to the best advantage. Bartholomew was too well watched, but he got in one of his great shots, just missing with Stephens helpless. From the goal kick, Rough and Dowell were playing a good game, and gave no rest to the halves and back opposed to them. Kerr was also doing fine. In fact the general unselfishness of the Vets and their speed being too much for the K. Cs. Half time arrived with the Vets leading by one goal to none.

Immediately after the restart the Vets lost T. Allen, their captain, Referee Payne ordering him off the field. The Vets resorted to the one back game, and for a time the game was poor to watch, only J. Allan appeared able to cope with the situation. Give and take play followed. The Vets were the more dangerous and from a combined attack Rough broke through, and after a brilliant run defeated Stephens for the second time. From the kick off Bartholomew, Kerr, Dowell and Rough, by fine combination, got down, and Vic Bartholomew just missed with a grand shot. The K. Cs. then began to attack with vengeance, Allan going through on his own and from a mix up in the goal scored the K. Cs. only goal. Penderay, for the winners, had not much to do; Kroeger as the lone back played fine. Allen, until the time he was sent off, was the best back on the field. Ackroyd, Forrest and Robbins played finely and fed their forwards well. Bartholomew was too well watched, but he brought those touches into play and Allan could do nothing with him. Rough and Powell were the star wings, and Kerr also played well. Knowles was off form. Stephens in goal for the K. Cs. had no chance with the shots that beat him. Breadner and Sherman played a good game. Allan was their best half, and McKinnon was their best forward.

FIFTH REGIMENT SHOOT

The competitors at the Clover Point rifle range Saturday had quite an unusual experience for them, the wind, more especially at the 600 yards, kept them guessing. Some good scores were put on record in spite of the erratic conditions. Lieut. deCarriere made a good shot in making 100. Gnr. Ommundson was close up with 99. Gnr. McGillibon made the excellent, conditions considered, score of 34 at the 600 yards and a possible at the 500 yards.

SAYS ONE MAN IS HOLDING UP SPORT

Secretary of Athletic Union Criticises Delay of Parks Committee

Strenuous criticism of the delay of the parks committee of the City Council in helping solve the problem of the lack of grounds for sport was passed at a meeting of the local body of the Amateur Athletic Union, B.C. branch, Monday night. Harry Boyd, secretary of the local body, who is also secretary of the deputation which was selected to wait upon the City Council, was instructed to endeavor to get quicker action on the matter, it being pointed out that the soccer and rugby men are both in need of grounds immediately. The soccer men have an intermediate league all ready with the schedule held up for lack of pitches.

"We have been informed that the parks committee will handle the matter," says Boyd, "and the matter was referred to them some time ago, but we have received no satisfaction. One reason given is that the chairman of the parks committee is out of town. That should not be sufficient reason for delay," he claims. "All the sportsmen kept out of the game should not be delayed for one man. This should not be a one-man affair. If the chairman is out of town some one else should be appointed to act in his stead."

In accordance with instructions of the meeting Boyd is out on the trail of the Mayor to-day in an effort to get speedier action.

Travis Davis, who was to have met Lux, had to cancel the engagement on account of a sprained tendon and Barrieau agreed to substitute.

AUSTRALIAN CARGO BOATS STEAMING TO SEATTLE

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 14.—The steamship Bellata, the first of three Australian cargo boats recently purchased by New York interests, and now steaming for Seattle, is due to arrive here in a week, according to announcement made Monday by E. McConlogue, shipping manager of George S. Bush Co., local agents for the vessels.

Following the Bellata will be the Bethanga, while the Bundarra is the last steamer of the fleet scheduled to arrive. No cargo arrangements have yet been made for these three carriers, according to Mr. McConlogue. The Wisteria and Dahlia, two others of the recently purchased fleet of five vessels, will take lumber to Cuba under charter to the L. D. Carpenter Lumber Company.

DAYTON AIRLESS TIRE

TO BUILD TWO NEW LIGHTHOUSE TENDERS

Marine Department Will Call For Tenders For Two 70-Foot Vessels

Two large and powerful motor boats for use as lighthouse tenders are to be constructed by the Marine Department. Tenders will be called for in a few days, and it is expected that early next month the contract will be awarded. Victoria and Vancouver shipbuilding firms will be in competition for the contract.

The two boats will have a length of seventy-five feet and a beam of between eighteen and twenty feet. They will be propelled by semi-Diesel engines. Special machinery will be installed to enable the vessels to lift all but the heaviest type of buoys moored along the coast. There will also be considerable space for carrying supplies and material for construction work, and accommodation will be provided for transporting men to the scene of new work.

Are Urgently Needed

These two vessels are urgently needed for the lighthouse service on this coast. At present the tenders Estevan, Newington and Leebro are having a difficult time in keeping all the aids in first-class condition, supplying the lightkeepers with their needs and building new aids. With the two motor boats in service they will greatly assist in the work, and many new aids which have been authorized but which cannot be established owing to the scarcity of tenders, will be constructed at once.

The new tenders will be excellent sea-going vessels and will be able to do work on any part of the coast.

CREW OF BELVEDERE AT NOME AFTER MANY TRIALS

Nome, Alaska, Oct. 14.—All the officers and members of the crew of the pioneer Seattle trading schooner Belvedere, crushed in the ice off Siberia, September 15, arrived here yesterday aboard the Ram, an Eskimo-owned schooner.

Capt. C. Hanson, master of the Belvedere, said that while hunting walrus off Kolyukian Bay, Siberia, September 12, a gale drove the boat into the ice and broke her rudder. Constant pounding opened leaks and when the water reached the seventh foot mark in the hold the crew went over the side and started for shore. Over the new ice, which was heaving and tossing under the gale, the members of the crew picked their dangerous way to the shore, twelve miles away. A few hours after they left the Belvedere she went down.

The sailors found a native village, where they lived until the gale subsided, when they proceeded to East Cape, Siberia, where they obtained two skin boats for a trip to the native settlement on Big Diomed Island, on the Russian-American boundary line. One of the boats lost its way in the fog and turned back. The other reached the island, where the crew was chartered for a trip back to Siberia to pick up the rest of the crew. After picking up all the survivors the Ram came on to Nome.

REBUILD SHIP TARSTED OUT OF SHAPE BY FIRE

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 14.—The steamer Lake Manitoba, which was burned at Montreal, August, 1918, while taking on a cargo of fuel oil, and was twisted almost out of shape by the heat, has been rebuilt at the Halifax Shipyard and sailed for Philadelphia on Sunday to load for a European port. Her name has been changed to Iver Heath and she is owned by the Iver Heath Company, a subsidiary of the Bishop Navigation Company. Formerly she was a passenger steamer, but is now exclusively a freighter with a gross tonnage of 9,100 tons.

The ex-Kaiser's life has become a burden to him. But his greatest trial is yet to come.

MAUNGANUI TO TAKE SAILINGS OF MAKURA

Fine Liner Will Enter Service Between Here and Antipodes Late This Year

According to New Zealand dispatches, the Union Steamship Company's large passenger liner Maunganui, which was released from the Imperial service last June, will go to Auckland at the end of the year to replace the liner Makura, temporarily in the service between this port and the Antipodes. The Maunganui is being converted into an oil burner at Port Chalmers.

The Maunganui is 500 gross tons smaller than the Makura, and on ordinary running was a slower vessel as a coal burner, but it is understood that with 11 boilers in use she could develop nearly seventeen knots. It is probable that as an oil burner her ordinary speed may be nearly as much as her previous full power. The Maunganui was built by the Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering Company, Ltd., at Govan, Scotland, and was launched in September, 1911. The Maunganui's dimensions are: Length, 420 feet; breadth, 55 feet 6 inches; gross tonnage, about 7,000. When she was built she was divided into nine water-tight compartments, and there were five decks—boat, promenade, upper, main and lower. Accommodation was provided for 244 first-class passengers, 175 second-class and eight third-class, also for a crew of 136. Forward of the main stairway there was a dining saloon over fifty feet long, extending the full width of the vessel.

High Class Ship

The decorations of the saloon were in white and gold, and the tables were arranged on the cafe principle, and capable of seating 144 persons. The second saloon could seat 110 diners. In general arrangements and equipment the Maunganui was of the highest class. Ventilation received careful attention, both naturally and by thermo-ventilating system, with louvre to each room, which allowed passengers to regulate the current of air.

The propelling machinery consisted of two sets of quadruple-expansion balanced engines. Steam at a pressure of 220 pounds was supplied by two double-ended and two single-ended cylindrical boilers adapted for Howden's system of forced draught. It is possible that in the process of conversion to an oil burner considerable alteration may be made in her internal arrangements.

CHINAMAN DIES ON EVE OF DEPARTURE

One of Coolies Passed Away on Tyndareus Yesterday; 3,523 Chinamen Left

Just as he was about to leave William Head yesterday on the last stage of his homeward journey from France to China, Lee, a Chinaman, died from tuberculosis. He had boarded the Blue Funnel liner Tyndareus for passage across the Pacific, but his life was ebbing fast and before he could disembark he passed away. His body was taken ashore and will be buried here.

The Tyndareus arrived at William Head yesterday morning at 9 o'clock and did not get away for the Orient until 1 o'clock last evening. A total of 3,523 Chinese embarked, which is the largest number ever carried across the Pacific by a single steamer. One hundred and eighty-eight Chinese remain at William Head under guard. The remainder of the crew on the Tyndareus, claiming that they were at variance with the paymaster in respect to the amount of money due them. They will remain there until the matter is straightened out. In order that the Blue Funnel liner might carry this huge number of Orientals alterations had to be effected to her interior. New bunks and electric lights had to be installed. The work cost $50,000 and was executed in ten days.

All the Chinese are on their way back to China after doing their bit in the Great War. They did fatigue work behind the lines in France.

Besides her immense passenger list the Tyndareus had a capacity cargo. Considerable of her freight space had to be reserved for the Chinese.

VANCOUVER WILL BENEFIT BY NEW U. S. RULING

Vancouver, Oct. 14.—"Vancouver will not certainly benefit by the recent ruling of the United States Railroad Administration whereby the wharfage charges on imported goods will not be absorbed by the railroad but will be charged to the importer of the goods imported are shipped within ten days from the port of entry in the same containers in which they were imported," said Captain Robert Dollar, head of the Dollar Steamship Lines, who arrived in this city on his way to Ottawa and New York.

BORNEO MARU WILL BE HERE TO-MORROW

Freighter to Discharge 400 Tons of Freight; Yarrow's Do Smart Job on Africa

Some time to-morrow morning the Osaka Shosen Kaisha freighter Borneo Maru will arrive at William Head and later will tie up at the Outer Docks. Wireless messages to this effect were received from the master of the steamship last night. The Borneo will remain here throughout the day discharging 400 tons of general cargo, and will then proceed to Seattle and Tacoma.

The Borneo Maru is one of the extra steamships operated by the Osaka Shosen Kaisha freighter line to assist the regular passenger ships in handling the huge amount of cargo which is offering for shipment across the Pacific.

Broke Brass Casting.

When the Osaka liner Africa Maru was being piloted to her berth at the docks on Saturday afternoon a brass fitting in the steering gear snapped. After the ship had tied up an examination revealed that the repairs would have to be made before she could proceed across the ocean.

Yarrow's were requested to make a new brass fitting. Work was started early Sunday morning and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon the fitting was completed. The officers of the Africa expressed keen admiration at the fast time made by Yarrow's. When the fitting was in place and orders given to stand by, the engineers suddenly discovered that the forced draft fans were not working and three hours were lost in getting the blowers working. The Africa finally got away for the Orient at 7 o'clock Sunday night.

The liner Fushimi Maru, of the Nippon line, carrying Baron Kondo, president of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha and a full passenger list and cargo, sailed for Yokohama and Hongkong on Sunday afternoon.

NON-UNION MEN LOAD RIFLES FOR RUSSIA

Many Former American Soldiers Help Load Steamship Delight at Seattle

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 14.—Twenty carloads of rifles consigned to Vladivostok have already been loaded aboard the steamship Delight, berthed at pier 5, according to officials now loading the cargo.

Thirty cases of the rifles remain to be loaded in the hatches of the Delight, and most of this supply is assembled on the pier. Good progress was made Monday and larger crews were recruited for active work today.

Although a large crowd assembled around pier 5 yesterday, no trouble occurred, and the work was carried on without interruption. A heavy police guard was stationed around the pier and along the water front to avert trouble.

One of the former soldiers was followed yesterday noon when he quit work by three men who assaulted him at First Avenue and Seneca Street. The worker, who declined to give his name because of fear of further attack, received a severely cut lip. The men who assaulted him had been in the crowd gathered on the outside of the dockhouse to remonstrate against loading the rifles.

OIL TANKER BELTRIDGE COMING HERE TO DOCK

The oil tanker Beltridge is expected here at the end of the week to enter drydock for an overhaul and cleaning.

The tanker El Lobo was floated into drydock yesterday morning and a gang of men is now employed in painting her. She will probably leave dock to-morrow.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

-it must be Bovril

It takes the beef of an 8-lb. joint to make a 4-oz. Bottle of Bovril. It is the special process employed to secure this extreme concentration of prime beef that accounts for the wonderful strength-giving virtue of Bovril, and its incomparable economy.

The independent scientific investigation which proved the Body-building power of Bovril to be from 10 to 20 times the amount taken was carried out by one of the foremost physiologists of the Empire on behalf of a Government Department, and the results obtained applied to Bovril and Bovril alone.

Even were it double the price, Bovril would still be an economical and indispensable article in every home. But it must be Bovril.

An increase in flesh, bone and muscle equal to 10 to 20 times the amount of Bovril taken.

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

The name "Bayer" identifies the only genuine Aspirin—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nine years and now made in Canada. Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally. Tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Larger "Bayer" packages. There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer". ## BERESFORD'S REPORT ON NAVY LEAGUE RELIEF FUNDS

Now that the war is happily over, we feel it due to the generous subscribers to the Navy League Overseas Relief Fund to give some account of the way in which the money they have so freely placed at our disposal, has been utilized to help those for whose benefit it was sent, namely, the dependents of sailors, both of the Royal Navy, of its auxiliaries and of the mercantile marine, who have been killed or injured during the war. Not that the work of distribution is over: far from it—for periods may still occur of distress greater than any yet experienced by these dependents, but the conditions will then be different, and therefore, the present seems a suitable time to report what the Navy League Overseas Relief Fund has enabled us to do under the actual pressure of war. When, very shortly after the Battle of Jutland, the Navy League began to receive very large sums from its overseas branches the question of administration had to be decided, and the committee having got into touch with the Royal Naval Friendly Union of Sailors' Wives, invited them to form a Ladies' Advisory Committee, certain members of which were also elected to serve on the Navy League Overseas Relief Fund general committee. The Royal Naval Friendly Union of Sailors' Wives had from the very earliest days of the war arranged with the Admiralty to supply them with complete lists of the next of kin, and were already in touch with large numbers of them, doing their best to help them by information and advice, and by means of any small resources at their disposal. The channels were thus ready prepared along which the bountiful stream of help could flow to those who needed it, and the work was quickly in full swing.

Widows Helped.

At first everyone's thoughts turned chiefly to the widows who had lost the very mainspring of their homes, and were left in a tragic loneliness, often with small children to bring up, and many of them did indeed require not only sympathy but material help, for in addition to the shock of the terrible news, there was sickness or any special emergency, the margin of income was often insufficient to meet the need, and struggle began just when there was least strength to face it. These widows were helped by weekly allowances, by payment of expenses when posthumous confinements took place, by arranging for a period of rest or change to help them through the first dreadful weeks. Delicate children were sent to convalescent homes, or to relatives in the country; clothing was provided when necessary, and extra nourishment or medical treatment paid for. Later on, when after six months, the widow's separation allowance was replaced by her permanent pension, this was often found to involve a considerable drop in income, and we were able to soften the transition by temporary grants. In cases where widows were able to think of occupation, many received training of various kinds, such as maternity nursing, leather work, machine, blouse making, etc., whilst for others good employment of a daily character was found in Government offices, allowing them plenty of time to see after their children, and yet to supplement their incomes by earning.

In Portsmouth, a Home Industry Training Centre for Sailors' widows was started by Lady Bradford, and was proven such a success that it may possibly be the first of many such centres. This was assisted by grants from the Overseas Fund, and it is now almost self supporting.

Others Assisted.

But it was soon found that the widows were not the only ones who required help, but that mothers, aunts, sisters, and even invalid brothers of sailors often sustained even more serious financial loss by the death of a sailor relative, than did the wives, for whereas the widow was always sure of a pension and obtained it without any interval after separation allowance ceased, it was far otherwise with those other dependents who had been wholly or partly supported by the men. In many instances these sons, nephews and brothers had simply remitted money, but had claimed no separation allowance, the result being that the death of the man meant the abrupt and complete stoppage of all supplies, and many months often elapsed before a pension was awarded. In such cases the Overseas Fund was simply invaluable, and it lifted many a load of care from weary shoulders.

Educational Work.

This brings us to one of the most important branches of the help given by the Overseas Fund, namely the educational. If there is any evidence that the deceased man had helped to give his children an education superior to the normal, or if any child shows special ability, then the wishes of that man are carried out, and the talents of that child are given every chance of full development. This branch of the work is of peculiar value to the widows of officers of the mercantile marine, who after being accustomed to a comfortable life, suddenly find themselves left with barely enough to live on. To give their children a good education is to them a matter of supreme importance, and would often be out of their power but for the Overseas Fund, which not only pays the fees, but also grants for books, clothing, traveling expenses, etc.

The result of the whole work is that many thousands of people have cause to bless the donors of the Navy League Overseas Relief Fund, who have come so nobly to the rescue of the desolate families of those brave men, who by the sacrifice of their lives or their health, have kept free for us and the world, those mighty oceans, which do not part us from our kinsfolk overseas, but rather form the great pathway by which we are brought near to each other. Words are feeble to express the gratitude we feel for this generous and practical sympathy, but from the depths of our hearts, and in the name of all the sailors' wives and families in Great Britain, we thank you, one and all, for the help and comfort and hope renewed you have been the means of bringing to so many shadowed homes, and for all you have thereby done to strengthen the ties of understanding and affection between the Mother Country and the furthest portions of the great Empire we all love and honor.

Five Minutes To Eleven has not yet come for those who stayed at home

The gallant Canadian army kept right on fighting until five minutes before the Armistice was signed.

The last lap of the war for those men was indeed a smashing, glorious finish!

While the fighting ended at five minutes to eleven on the morning of the eleventh of November last year, the war has not yet ended for those of us who stayed at home.

Our "Five Minutes to Eleven" has not yet come. There is a great deal more for us to do, before our war job is finished.

There are still heavy demobilization expenses to clean up. In a few short months we have brought home the troops that were transported overseas during four years of war—four years' transportation expenses crowded into a few months.

Many millions are still required to complete payment of demobilization and for other purely military expenditures.

The Victory Loan 1919 which is necessary to meet these war obligations is the great objective in the last lap for those who stayed at home.

The Canadian Corps, during the war, never lost a gun,—never once retreated and never failed to take an objective.

Keeping that glorious record in our minds, and carrying that "no surrender" fighting spirit into the new Victory Loan campaign, there can be only one result:—Success, overwhelming and triumphant.

When the figures for the Victory Loan 1919 are totalled up, the result will show the world that those of us who stayed at home have taken another glorious objective on the road to our "Five Minutes to Eleven."

FATHER OF THE BICYCLE

Dan Rudge was a publican. In 1869 he kept the Tiger's Inn in Church Street, Wolverhampton. Plenty of publicans know a thing or two about horses, but for an inn-keeper to be an expert mechanic is a trifle out of the common.

Rudge, however, was a practical mechanic. Engineering was his hobby, and bicycles were his special craze.

In those days, half a century ago, the bicycle was just emerging out of the "bone-shaker" stage. There was not a real bicycle factory in the kingdom. The few bicycles that existed were built by little firms in little machine shops.

Rudge fitted up a room in his inn as a workshop, and there set to work to build bicycles. They were, of course, of the old high type, with solid tires soldered on to the rims. But Rudge's were the best of them all. How good they were is proved by the fact that in all local races riders of Rudge machines were penalized. One of the first men to ride a Rudge came to the maker and complained that the hand-cup had put him back twenty yards. Rudge devoted most of his time to his hobby, which probably paid him better than his inn. He was the first man to use ball bearings in a bicycle. He patented adjustable ball bearings, and also adjustable ball bearings within the hub of the rear wheel.

Rudge was a delicate man, and died in June, 1880, when at the very zenith of his fame. His widow sold his bicycle business to Mr. George Woodcock, a Coventry solicitor.

While Rudge was building bicycles in his little back shop in Wolverhampton, a man named James K. Starley had, in 1872, started a small works in Hall Street, Coventry. They were known as the St. Agnes Works. Starley had some experience in bicycle building, for he had already been foreman for three years in some cycle works at Coventry. He began building both sewing machines and bicycles. His first bicycle was known as the "Europa," and though a primitive affair was full of novelties. His next was the "Ariel," and a seven-foot Ariel constructed by Starley was shown at the Leamington Meet in 1875.

The bicycles went well, and so did the sewing machines, but, as the two did not run well together, Starley and his partner, Smith, started separate works for bicycle building in Spon Street, Coventry, while their sewing machines were made in Crow Lane. In 1876 Starley produced his Tangent bicycle, which became popular at once, and in the same year the Coventry Lever bicycle. This tricycle had a large wheel to the left and two small ones to the right.

In the year 1879 that same solicitor, Mr. George Woodcock, who afterwards bought up Dan Rudge's business, bought up Smith and Starley's. The Spon Street works were given up, but those in Crow Lane were fitted up with all the latest machinery. The name of the firm was changed to the Coventry and Tangent Tricycle Company.

This was the real beginning of Rudge-Whitworth, Ltd. Those old shops in Crow Lane are to-day a part of the great Rudge-Whitworth works. Then began the first boom. In 1879 Starley produced his masterpiece, the first rear-driving safety bicycle. As there was no word then to describe such a machine, Starley called it the "bicyclette," and by that name the bicycle is to-day universally known in France.

For some years all went well, and at Paris in 1889 the Rudge machines were awarded a gold medal. Then came a blow. An increase of tariff cut off the American export trade, and general sickness of trade at home reduced the sales. In 1891 Mr. Woodcock died, and presently it was realized that the firm was falling upon evil days.

But the heads of the firm stuck to it, and amalgamated with the Whitworth Cycle Company, of Birmingham; they re-organized, cut their prices, and presently the Rudge-Whitworth was going ahead again faster than ever.

In 1906 the firm turned out 50,000 bicycles; in 1907 the output jumped to 75,000. At present they have one of the largest buildings in Coventry and three separate big factories in Birmingham—Tit-Bits.

MAKING STEEL AGAIN.

Sydney, N.S., Oct. 14.—Steel making is showing more progress in Sydney. After a shutdown of three and a half months, a portion of the open-hearth furnaces of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company are once again producing ingots.

THE HUSTLING BRITON

Of all the world powers, Great Britain alone seems anxious to get away from the war and back to business. Other nations, who were rocked of defence and lions of assault during the war, have now succumbed to a social and industrial coma and dreams of boundless American credit, huge indemnities, limitless war-torn territory and endless servitude by the defeated powers.

Italy, for example, wants American coal, American food and American credits; she complains pitifully that every other allied nation got more out of the war than she did. France, after begging us for aid, now threatens to turn down the peace treaty because it does not name impossible indemnities, huge territorial seizures and mediaval punishments. Suggestion is made in her legislative halls that America, "having profited by $20,000,000,000 in the first three years of the war," shall not now leave France "crushed by her victory." Germany, bowing and cringing, presents a hard luck story with one hand and a request for credit with the other, while her tongue voices mingled entreaty and defiance.

England alone has had the commonsense and courage to face the facts, turn her back resolutely on the war and start a march toward the Promised Land of Things as They Were.

While France was afraid to publish a statement of her financial affairs, England's premier told the country in plain words that they were headed for ruin, that certain conditions were bad and must be remedied, that, above all, the real cause of distress was lack of production and nothing but increased production could remedy the situation.

While France was putting a 75 per cent. import duty on automobiles and using every means to tear foreign products from her markets, and even the United States was getting panicky over the threatened German supply, Great Britain started the business world by striking off the harassing "import license" system and threw wide her markets to the world, without a protective tariff or other defence, excepting a meagre "anti-dumping, basic industry" law. Automobile makers, for instance, were so dumbfounded that they refused to believe it, declaring there was an Ethiopian concealed somewhere among the cord world. England has had the real moral courage to stop an expensive air programme when she was leading the world, because she was not a present necessity. England has inaugurated a vigorous campaign in Argentina with her financial horse, foot and dragons. She is making a bold bid for the petroleum supplies of the world. She has stopped building warships to clear her yards for more merchantmen.

Now, the representative of Russian Association which controls 1,600 tanneries and 400 shoe factories declares that English merchants are everywhere in southern (anti-Bolshevik) Russia; that British capital is granting large lines of credit and insuring shipping and storage. And he concludes that American business men who stand off now will find England installed as a middleman between themselves and Russia, a little later.—Boston News Bureau.

New York, Oct. 14.—Jacob Lubin, wanted on a charge of forgery, was brought here to-day on the steamship Moro Castle from Tampico, Mex., where he was arrested.

To All Men

Whose Teeth Do Not Stay White

All Statements Approved by High Dental Authorities

Free

A 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent to show the way to whiter, safer teeth. Send coupon.

The Reason is a Film

Millions of men find that teeth brushed daily still discolor and decay. Tartar forms on them—tobacco stains appear. And with thousands pyorrhea gets a start.

That is evidence that teeth are not kept clean. Your methods are inadequate. You leave a film—that slimy film. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tooth brush does not remove it all. The ordinary tooth paste does not dissolve it. So, night and day, it may do a ceaseless damage.

It Wrecks the Teeth

That film is what discolors—not the teeth. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film.

Dental science, after years of searching, has found a film combatant. Dental authorities have proved its efficiency. Now it is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent, so everyone may use it every day. We urge you to ask for a free 10-Day Tube and see what it means to you.

A Pepsin Paste

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digestant of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to constantly combat it.

Pepsin long seemed impossible. It must be activated, and the usual agent is an acid harmful to the teeth. But science has found a harmless activating method. Countless tests have proved this. And that method has made active pepsin possible.

You can see its effects. And, when you know their reason, can judge them for yourself.

Send the coupon for a 10-day tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how the teeth whiten as the fixed film disappears.

The question is all-important. White, clean, safe teeth are impossible with film. Cut out this coupon—learn the way to end it.

TAKING A CHANCE.

Last year you "took a chance"—as you called it—and bought Victory Bonds up to the limit of your cash, and not content, up to the limit of your credit.

It took courage. But it wasn't hard, was it? And you were really amazed at the ease with which you could save.

You found that buying bonds was,

most emphatically, "good business."

And it wasn't taking a chance at all. Another good opportunity is coming along with Victory Loan 1919.

STEWART WILL BE BIG MINING CENTRE

Interesting Addresses at Meeting of Branch of Mining Institute

A successful meeting of the North Coast branch of the Canadian Mining Institute was held in Stewart recently, there being a business session in the afternoon and general discussion in the evening at a banquet in the King Edward Hotel. The branch was organized in Anox with Major Angus Davis, general manager of the Dolly Varden mine, as chairman, and E. J. Conway, field engineer for the Granby Consolidated as vice-chairman. Roy Clothier, of Stewart, acted as provincial secretary. A number of local mining men made application for membership.

The principal address at both sessions was delivered by E. E. Campbell, mine manager at Anox for the Granby. He pointed out the reawakened interest in the Portland Canal district and he looked for this to be an exceptional camp. While it was not generally known, he said, the Granby Hidden Creek mine was the biggest copper mines in the British Empire. The Dolly Varden at Alice Arm was a fine property in a splendid section and he looked for big things here. In fact, in regard to this district Mr. Campbell said during his address in the evening: "I am not given to making prophecies, but I prophesy that Stewart will become the chief mining centre in Northern B. C. I travelled all over the northwest from Washington to Alaska when I was in the field for Granby and I never saw a district that has the potential possibilities that this has."

Aims and Objects.

Mr. Campbell at both sessions explained the aims and objects of the Institute. In connection with the work it was doing for the good of the mining industry, he pointed out that one subject which was being undertaken was the removal of, or at least the lowering of, the tariff on mining machinery which was one of the obstacles to development especially in the initial stages, which is the time when mining property needs every encouragement. Mining, he said, was the stabilizer of the country, and it was the mining industry which would help Canada pay its tremendous war debt.

Roy Clothier spoke briefly on the development which has taken place here since the days of the boom. Mr. Conway pointed out the value of the Institute to the industry. Pat Daly was in a reminiscent mood and reviewed the history of the great Premier mine, his endeavors to interest somebody in it and his final success in bringing R. K. Neill into the country, which started the present activity. He said that he had mined in practically all the chief mining sections of the Province and in his judgment there was more ore here than in any other section.

P. S. Jack, mining recorder, alluded to the gathering as the most important ever held in Stewart and referred to the debt the country owes to the pioneers who stayed with this district.

Dr. M. W. Bruner said the Institute should receive every encouragement for it was only by organization that the industry would make the advancement it should make. William Noble urged that the spirit of perseverance should not diminish and above all endurance which would advance this mining district.

BOY SCOUTS STAGE EXCITING BATTLE

Large Number of Boys Participated in Manoeuvres at Gonzales Hill Yesterday

An exciting attack on Gonzales Hill, providing all the thrills of a real battle, was the chief feature of the Boy Scout field manoeuvres yesterday. Glorious weather favored the scouts, who turned out to the number of ninety strong, among them a number of members who had only recently returned from overseas.

The attack on Gonzales Hill was made by the Collegiate School Scouts who displayed great stealth and knowledge of scouting in creeping up the heights toward the defenders. So well was the attack carried out that the defence was unable to prevent the assault from piercing its lines, the Collegiate boys thus winning the day. Dispatch running was another interesting feature of the programme. The McLean troop won first place, Granite Street Wolf Pack second and St. James troop third.

Lieut.-Col. Hall and Rev. T. R. Heneage were present at the manoeuvres. Mr. Heneage addressed the boys on the prospects for the Scout movement during the coming season, and said that it was his ambition to see a thousand scouts on parade. The record won by the scouts in war, he declared, should be backed up by the performance of the local Scout movement in the period of reconstruction.

Last, but by no means least on the day's programme, was the bun fight at the headquarters of the Granite Street Wolf Pack at the St. Columba Church.

BANK CLEARINGS TREBLED IN SIZE DURING DECADE

Remarkable Expansion of Canadian Business Shown—This Year's Figures Exceed Last Year.

There is no more reliable index of business conditions than the bank clearings. They are a clear, outspoken guide as to the amount of trade.

These figures show that in a short ten years business has trebled in Canada. In 1909 the bank clearings were $5,204,957,350.

This year—our first after-the-war year—in eight months the clearings were $9,996,751,907, indicating that the record of fifteen billions would be topped for the full year.

This is a remarkably record of expansion, especially as it brings out strikingly the fact that business is not only readjusting itself to peace times from war conditions, but is actually on the upgrade in no uncertain fashion.

The figures from 1909 onward are as follows:

1909 ..... $ 5,204,957,350
1910 ..... 6,154,701,915
1911 ..... 7,391,368,207
1912 ..... 8,155,831,412
1913 ..... 9,257,189,154
1914 ..... 8,087,728,595
1915 ..... 7,508,888,010
1916 ..... 10,509,496,068
1917 ..... 12,564,623,205
1918 ..... 13,776,332,726
1919 (8 mos.) ..... 9,996,751,907
Estimated for 1919 ..... 15,000,000,000
It is another important point that in every month of this year there has been a noticeable increase in the bank clearings over the same month last year.

The figures have great bearing on the Victory Loan campaign for they definitely assert that if every Canadian does his or her part the loan will have a success truly Canadian in its triumph.

NOT THE SAME THING.

One morning an old man was busy in the backyard with a saw and hatchet when the next door neighbor came in to inquire after the health of his wife. The wife, it seems, had taken a severe cold.

"Good mornin', Mr. Smith," said the neighbor. "How is Mrs. Smith this mornin'?"

"Just about the same," answered old Mr. Smith. "She didn't sleep very well last night."

"Poor dear," said the neighbor. "Then dare you show yourself at my house? How dare you ask for your ball? Do you know you nearly killed one of my children with it?"

"But you've got ten children," said the logical lad, "and I've only got one baseball."
